Foreword by the Principal

In view of the public attention which has been drawn by the Report of the Special Committee on Moral Delinquency in Children and Adolescents, the Director of Education in his recent annual report to the Minister of Education has discussed the responsibilities and the limitations of the schools in the matter of character training. He details the ways in which schools actively are doing their part but he points out that there is a limit to what they can be expected to do for the pupil on "only five or six hours a day for forty weeks of the year and for ten years of his life." He remarks: "The teacher can strongly reinforce the influence of a good home; but he has only limited powers of counteracting the influences of a bad one." The school is a part of the community but with standards higher than the average standards of the community. These "two sets of standards are intimately related, and it is idle to try to make the gap between them too wide." Consequently the schools cannot "be expected to inculcate moral standards that are very far in advance of those commonly observed in the community as a whole" or expected to bring about a moral revolution.

It has been gratifying this year to find that the functions arranged by the Parent-Teachers' Association have been much better attended than in recent years. At the October meeting the attendance was about two hundred. I would welcome much greater interest by the parents in the work and the play of their children. A few parents attend faithfully the basketball, hockey, cricket or football in which their children are playing. Many parents are not in a position to do this but more could put in an occasional visit to the sports ground to encourage both master and pupil. I find that most parents who visit me do so with diffidence and apologetically. I wish to assure all parents that it is our sincere wish that they should make more contact with the College. The afternoon meetings of the Parent-Teachers' Association are arranged so that school is dismissed a little early and the staff join the parents at afternoon tea. The half-yearly reports must frequently be the cause of doubts and questions in the home but few of these are brought to the School. I hope that all parents will make use of the many opportunities which are provided for keeping in touch with the College. Active cooperation by home and the College will enable both to do more to help our pupils both in their formal school work and in the building of their characters.

VALEDICTORY

With the opening of a number of new schools in the Auckland Education District, it is not surprising to see senior members of the Staff of the College assuming responsibilities in these new schools. Last year we lost Mr. McKillop to Kelston, and more recently, Mr. Wooller and Mr. Eade have been appointed to posts of responsibility at the Penrose High School.

Mr. Wooller joined the College in 1930, and during his 25 years of service with us has taught most of the subjects in the boys' curriculum — at one period, indeed, he even tried his hand as an electrical instructor in the Motor Engineering Course. Latterly his energies have been directed towards the building up of a Geography Course in the College. A man with a large capacity for work, Mr. Wooller found time to organise the College athletic activities and the Cadet Corps over a long period of years, while football and cricket, too, owe him a debt of gratitude for his efforts on their behalf. During his long association with the College, Mr. Wooller has seen many changes, and it is with genuine regret that we lose a man who has been a staunch worker over the years. Staff and pupils alike will miss his wealth of anecdote.

Mr. Eade joined the College staff more recently, but his energy and purposefulness have made his presence strongly felt during the six years that he has been with us. Always sympathetic of the boys' joint of view, Mr. Eade gave much of his time to outside activities, softball and drama in particular claiming his attention.

To these two masters we extend our sincere congratulations on their appointments and express the hope that the experience gained here will help in the building of a fine new school.

December, 1954, saw the retirement of Miss L. Anderson after nearly 33 years of teaching service. Miss Anderson, who joined the staff in June, 1922, was Art Mistress of the College, a position which she filled with distinction.

Many students will remember with pleasure the skilled embroidery done under her tuition and her helpfulness with Seddonian art entries. Miss Anderson's outside activities ranged from swimming to floristry, her skill in the latter being ably employed each year in the preparation of bouquets for prizegiving.

In the common-room, Miss Anderson was a pleasant and helpful associate whose pithy turns of phrase was greatly valued by her fellow teachers. While we regret the loss of a respected colleague, we are happy to know that Miss Anderson now has leisure to pursue her hobbies and to enjoy her beautiful new home and attractive garden.

PAST STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION NOTES

Since the reformation of the Old Pupils' Association following the Jubilee Celebrations in 1953, every effort has been made to encourage Past Students to join up with the group.

The Annual Meeting held in October, 1954, was well attended and the Executive Committee of the previous year was returned to office.

This Committee endeavoured to cater for all sections of the members in its programme of events for the year.

The first effort was a Social Evening in the College Hall on 26th March. This included items by past pupils and friends. Committee member, Janet Wallace, was commended for her splendid effort in providing first class entertainment. Ladies of the Committee supplied an excellent supper and, although the attendance was not up to expectations, those present voted it a most enjoyable evening.

To cater for the younger folk, a dance was held in the College on 30th April. This was fairly well attended, but not by the younger group, for whom the entertainment was chiefly intended. The "Blue Rhythm" Orchestra provided the music and Messrs. Sinton and Maloy were responsible for the decoration of the hall. Ladies of the Committee provided supper.

Our next function covered the weekend, 21st-22nd May, when the Reunion took place.

Opening on the Saturday afternoon with a "Conversazione" and afternoon tea at the College, Saturday evening was the occasion of the Reunion Dinner, which was held this year in the National Party Club rooms. Over 60 past pupils were present and kindred associations were represented by the Sacred Heart College Old Boys' Association and the Diocesan High School Old Girls' League. Mr. H. M. Scott, Principal of the College, and Mrs. Scott, were also guests. The Reunion concluded on the Sunday evening with a Church Parade at the Pitt Street Methodist Church, where the President of the Association, Mr. Alwyn Moon, and the Vice-President, Mrs. Aileen Gooder, read the Lesson.

A further dance was held in the College Hall on Saturday, 23rd July, and once again the "Blue Rhythm" Orchestra provided the music. Mr. Eric James acted as M.C. for the evening. An enjoyable supper was provided by the ladies of the Committee.

The Annual Meeting of the Association will be held in October and it is hoped that all past students of the College will interest themselves in the activities of the Association. The Committee would be pleased to receive any suggestions for the enlargement of its social programme.

Application forms for membership may be obtained from the College Office, or from Mr. C. L. Maloy at the College, or from the Secretary, Mrs. Joan Durbin, 124 Elstree Ave., Panmure, E.2.

Membership fees: Under 19 years of age, 2/6; 20 and over, 5/-. Association badges are available from the Secretary at 5/- each.

"SOME IMPRESSIONS OF AN OLD BOY"

Round about 9.00 a.m. on the first Monday in February, 1913, a group of boys assembled in the alley way out side the lower corridor by Rooms 2 and 3. They were attired in the usual black shorts and flannel shirt. At the neck they wore a plain green tie; the cap was also plain green, but was adorned with an enamel-faced badge, on which was emblazoned some of the motifs shown in the stained glass windows around the main front doors. The three-quarter hose had two green stripes knitted in the tops and were worn in their correct position, just as a matter of course.

A round-shouldered man, who wore spectacles with very thick lenses, and who spoke with what seemed an American accent, then called the names of the boys and arranged them in groups. This was the first day in the new school building, and about 200-odd boys answered to the call of their names. All were then marched up to the flat roof, where about 120 girls were already assembled. This was at the level of what is now the top floor, containing the cafeteria and adjacent rooms. In those days it had a high wire-netting fence around it and later it had a full-sized tennis court marked out on it, and we conducted tennis tournaments there after school and at week-ends.

When we came out at lunch times and made our way into the playground our way was partly blocked by a large red corrugated iron shed, located just near the steps down to the tuck shop. This had served for some years as the engineering workshop.

Of course, there was no tuck shop in that day, nor were there bicycle sheds or any partition between the grounds belonging to the two grey concrete buildings. The ground was undulating, sparsely covered with fern and ink-weed, and in wet weather it was very slippery.

We soon learned that our next-door neighbour was the Training College, and below that was the Wellesley Street Normal School. In fact, when I was a very new boy at this new Technical College, my wife-to-be was one of the small primer girls who used to play on the lower ground which was already established and surfaced, much as it is to-day. I can still see, in my memory, those classes of small children being assembled and marched into school to the strains of whistle music accompanied by kettle drums.

The new engineering workshops were located where the electrical laboratory now is, while next door on one tory, and on the other was the foundry side was Room 2, the chemical laboratory and cupola, while further along was the smithy, which embraced Mr. Austin's laboratory and Room 10. For our woodwork we assembled at a large galvanised iron shed which was located on the high ground adjacent to St. Paul's Street, where the workshop block now is.

Mr. H. R. Urquhart, our English master, was O.C. of the Cadet Battalion, which comprised four large platoons. Squad drill was carried out on any available small area of ground which could be called level, parades were held on the drill hall area, and in wet weather in the drill hall itself. Just try to imagine the din when S.M.'s, C.O. and N.C.O.'s all tried to yell orders within that iron building. For company movements and route marches we went out into either Princes Street or Symonds Street. We had the distinction of having our own brass band, 14 members strong, under the baton of Mr. Fred E. Mason, the chemistry master of the day. Great was our pride when, on special occasions, the 3rd Auckland Cadet Battalion marched up Queen Street behind its own band. On one occasion the Battalion went into camp at Home Bay, Motutapu, for a week. They were accommodated in the old-fashioned bell tents and lived the life of the ordinary soldier except that conditions were not so rigorous.

The boys in the agriculture course used to go out to a small farm at Otahuhu near the railway line and about where the fertiliser works now stand. They used to plough and otherwise prepare the land with the aid of an old draught horse, and then complete the process by manual labour. I clearly remember some of the boys displaying the swellings where they had been stung, so I am confident that they kept bees there also.

It was many years later that an assembly hall was built, and the boys playing in the area at that time could look up at the staff room, whose windows overlooked the grounds. It gave the staff a grandstand view of any fights or other disturbances going on in the ground. This is now the Board Room.

A boy was considered a good Rugby player if he could punt a football up on to the roof among the girls, who on fine days had their lunch there.

S.M.T.C. CADET BATTALION, 1955.

With the complete reorganisation of this Unit this year, many changes in administration and training have been made. A N.C.O.T.U. Company, staffed by the officers and senior N.C.O.'s, has been formed. Artillery and Medical units have been re-instituted and an Electrical and Mechanical Engineers' unit has begun work. In addition to its former strength the Air Training Corps Squadron now has a Third Form Flight.

During the year a number of officers and cadets attended courses. Cadets participated in two Signals courses at Area 1 H.Q., others visited the Royal New Zealand Armed Corps unit at Ngaruawahia, a small group was present at a Signals Day at Papakura, and 100 members of the N.C.O.T.U. spent a week-end at Narrow Neck under the supervision of their own Under Officers. Fifteen N.C.O.'s did a week's course at Papakura, at which camp W.O.II. F. Kaa was awarded a trophy which the Principal later presented at a College assembly.

In September Capt. L. C. Grant and Capt. C. T. Brooking were both honoured with the award of the Efficiency Decoration. Mr. R. B. Waddell, of the Staff, and formerly of the Cadet Unit, was also a recipient.

The thanks of the Unit go to the officers and staff of Area 1 H.Q. and to A.T.C., H.Q., for their assistance and co-operation throughout the year.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF TECHNICAL EDUCATION IN AUCKLAND

The only form of technical education in Auckland in the late 19th century was the "Auckland Technical School Association" in Rutland Street. The school was formed through the efforts of Mr. J. H. Mackie and Sir Maurice O'Rorke. The school was opened on the 10th June, 1895.

The public, however, was not very interested in the school and support was poor. In 1899 the roll was only 175 even though the population of Auckland was about 70,000.

In 1901 the Education Board took over the school and advertised for a director of technical education and manual training. Mr. George George was chosen from over 70 applicants in Great Britain and Australasia.

He arrived in Auckland in October, 1902 but found only 30 students in the school. He appealed to the Board and received a substantial grant to remodel the Rutland Street building and to purchase new equipment.

The reorganized Technical School was opened on the 23rd March, 1902. All classes were in the evenings and eight courses were available to the students. The roll increased to 322.

A year later a Manual Training Centre was established in Newton. An iron building was erected and equipped as a machine shop and smithy. 517 students enrolled in 1905 while 200 had to be turned away because of limited accommodation.

Soon after, the City Council provided a site for a new school in Wellesley Street and donations were received from the public, the largest being £10,000 from the Auckland Savings Bank Trustees.

In 1906, the day school was established with a roll of 83 pupils. In 1907 the roll rose to 133.

The foundation stone of the present building was laid by Lord Plunket on the 17th August, 1909.

In 1912 three of the five floors of the new building were completed and the building was occupied. It was decided that the new school should be called Seddon Memorial Technical College.

The day roll in 1914 was 397 with the evening school attendance passing the thousand mark for the first time.

Until 1915 Mr. George George retained his post of Director of Technical Education and Manual Training for the whole of the Auckland province. By this time the college roll had grown to over 2,000 and he decided to retire from his post to devote his full time to the college. He remained Principal until his retirement in 1922.

From 1922 to 1946, Mr. G. J. Park was principal of the college. He saw a remarkable growth in the size of the college. The day roll increased from 599 to 1746 and the evening students from 1084 to 2466.

In 1946 Mr. H. M. Scott became principal following the resignation of Mr. Park.

The first apprentice attended for daylight training in 1949.

1928 was an important year for the college. The motto, "Vitae Non Scholae Descimus" was chosen and the assembly hall was built from Binns and Hindley bequests. By 1953 the day roll had increased to 1206.

Today Seddon Memorial Technical College is recognized as one of the leading Technical colleges in the Dominion. Geraldine Fry, C.5

GIRLS' CRUSADER NOTES

Every Wednesday at lunch time a group of about 30 girls meet in room 36 to hold Crusaders.

During this time, we have talks, either by Miss. Worrall or Miss. Davies, singing, library, and scripture reading.

However, Miss Davies and Miss Worrall do not always give us their guidance. Two weeks ago, we attempted to hold our own meeting. Talks, reading and items were given by the girls. The meeting was very successful and enjoyed by all. We hope to hold another such meeting next term.

Arrangements are in progress for a social evening to be held in conjunction with the Boys' Crusader Union, early next term.

Our number of badge holders totals one but we hope that this number will be largely increased next term.

Our thanks go to Miss Worrall and Miss. Davies for their leadership throughout the year. Altogether this year has been enjoyed by all and we pray that we are doing our share towards bringing the pupils of this school into the Kingdom of Christ.

BOYS' SPORTS NOTES

CRICKET NOTES

FIRST XI

With eight of last year's 1st XI back, our hopes of doing well in this year's competition were high. Perhaps Tech. has never boasted of a more formidable bowling attack than we have been graced with. With fast bowlers Naea and Brown, backed up by medium paced swing bowling by Clinton, and an invaluable addition to the team in the form of Sissons, bowling left arm spinners, we were well on the attack.

Our first game against Avondale began sensationally when we lost two quick wickets, but a good partnership between Naea (54) and Anderton (25) added 75 for the third wicket, and we were eventually all out for 144. Avondale went in to bat and our hopes soared when the opposition collapsed, and at one stage, Naea, Brown and Clinton, all had the amazing figures of 1 for none. But after this good start, we lost our grip on the game, regained it again when we had them 8 for 119 but threw the game away through bad fielding.

We played King's in our next game but it was a disappointing display. We confirmed the strength of our bowling attack and revealed a batting weakness in the side. We batted first and made 24. King's were then dismissed for 92. The honours were definitely with the bowlers for this performance, and a feature was that Sissons worried all the King's batsmen, and it was in this game that he really proved his worth. Clinton was also on form and was getting a good deal of life from the pitch, which was very damp. The second innings was a repetition of the first, the only opposition being offered by Anderton who scored 22 net out.

Our next game against Grammar, who had an impressive record, brought out the solidity of the attack. Two quick wickets by Brown and Naea, and an exceedingly fine spell of bowling by Sissons, enabled us to have Grammar considerably worried, and in fact at one stage, a collapse looked practically certain when they were seven for 107. But after being nearly all day in the field, the team tired, and this enabled Grammar to score some very quick runs and retrieved the position. Unfortunately, inconsistent batting cost us the game, but one bright feature was a hard hitting partnership between Brown (44) and a newcomer, Noble, (22) who, incidentally had the honour of hitting the first six of the season. An unusual sidelight of the game was the luck of McLaughlan who in the course of the first innings, was dropped five times with another four easy chances.

We again this year had the pleasure of a visit by Te Puke, and this was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Again, youth and experience were against them, but this should not detract too much credit from the performance of the home side which played exceedingly well to win outright in one day. There were some outstanding bowling performances by Brown (who, incidentally, achieved the hat-trick), and McLaughlan, who took five wickets for three runs. The best batting performances were by Anderton (59), and Brown (37 not out). We again thank Mr. Page for the help and encouragement he has given us throughout the season, and for his strong interest.

2nd CRICKET ELEVEN NOTES

In the two games played in the first term the 2nd Eleven, although not successful, moulded into a well-balanced side. The regular team is:—Anderson (capt.), Leys (vice-capt.), Mitchell, Gilmore, McGregor, Hounslow, Steadman, Sutcliffe, Abbott, Kinghorn, Norris and McQuoid. Results—v. Mt. Roskill. Although beaten on the first innings, the game was close and evenly contested. Hounslow topped the scoring with 30, while Steadman, man, McGregor, and Hounslow were the successful bowlers.

V. Mt. Albert. Beaten outright by a much more experienced and older team. McGregor and Sutcliffe bowled consistently while Mitchell did best amongst the batsmen.

The whole team wish to thank very much their coach, Mr. Riddolls, who gave so unstintingly of time and energy for the betterment of the team.

THIRD GRADE

Disappointing as the results were, they would have been worse if it had not been for the time and very able coaching, so freely given by the coach, Mr. L. C. Grant. The batsmen who showed promise were Patterson (25), Carpenter (38), Paterson (27), and Harman who played some very sound cricket, both with the bat and behind the wicket; while among the bowlers, Tuck (4/26), Paterson (0/18), and Carpenter (3/53). McKenzie excelled with (11/88).

This match, much to our surprise, we won—by default.

v. T.G.S.

This match resulted in a draw. S.M.T.C. 96 (Paterson 27, Carpenter 38) against T.G.S.'s. 86 for 6 wickets (McKenzie 5/36).

v. St. Pauls

S.M.T.C. 36 against 60 scored by St. Pauls (McKenzie 4/19, Tuck 3/10)

v. Mt. Albert

In this match Mr. Grant made sure we would win by bringing along the team mascot Cho-cho, the Pekinese, so of course we lost. S.M.T.C. scored 60 (Tuck 12 retired hurt, Carpenter 16) against 66 for 7 wickets by M.A.G.S. (Carpenter 2/10).

The regular team was: R. Tuck (Capt.), Carpenter (Vice-Capt.), McKenzie, R. Harman, Dale Patterson, Paterson, Chandler, Beasley, Melrose, Ettles and Mincham.

FOURTH GRADE

The 4th Grade team started out as an unavailing, batch of hoboes and ended up with five victories! These victories were due to the efforts of Stevens, (captain), Graham, Thomson, Walter, Mullenger, Evans, Wright, Stapleton, Stevenson, Harris, Grundy, Menzies, and poor opposition. 5 for 118 runs was top score for the season, St. Pauls, the unfortunate opponents, being unable to raise more than 76 runs. A first innings victory to us, with Dobrec and Mullenger scoring 34 and 27 respectively. Takapuna Grammar presented the toughest opposition, amassing 50 first innings runs to our 38. Auckland Grammar, St. Peter's College, and Sacred Heart College all proved reasonable easy opponents.

Many thanks to long-suffering coach Mr. Ewen.

Date: 12/2/55.

S.M.T.C. v. T.G.S., at Domain.

S.M.T.C., first innings, 39; second innings, 56.

T.G.S., first innings, 50; second innings, two for 12.

First innings win for S.M.T.C.

Date 5/3/55:

S.M.T.C. v. St. Peter's, at Domain.

S.M.T.C., first innings, 75; second innings, none for 20.

St. Peter's, first innings, 39; second innings, nine for 23.

FIFTH GRADE

The 5th Grade began the season well, having had two wins, a draw and a loss.

Easily our best bat was Marchant who consistently made runs. Top scorers were Munns 31, Viznovich 25, and Marchant 21.

Munns, Parry and Viznovich did best with the ball, their best figures being respectively 8 for 13, 7 for 14, 6 for 12.

Both Harris and Williams kept wickets reliably while Marchant, Parry, Brent, Simpson and Phillimore were keen fieldsmen.

We thoroughly enjoyed all our games.

6A TEAM

We played four games during the very limited season, the record being as follows:—

Beat Grammar D by an innings and 70 runs.

Lost to Avondale by two wickets.

Beat Kelston by one run in the first innings

Drew with Henderson.

The last game was particularly memorable. We were well ahead in the 1st innings, and by declaring early in the second, allowed Henderson a fighting chance which they gamely accepted. With one wicket in hand they scored the equalising run with the last ball of the last over, a highly exciting end to a highly enjoyable game.

6B Team

v. St. Peter's, lost, 53—30

v. M.R.G.S., won, 19—46

v. Northcote College, wins, 77—10; 77—8

v. Kowhai, lost, 61—57

FIRST IX SOFTBALL

The first half of the season was very unsuccessful as far as winning was concerned. However, many friends were made during the very enjoyable games which were played in a fine spirit. The outlook for the second half of the season seems quite bright as the younger players are learning the finer points of the game.

The season started with a good game against Mt Albert, although we were well beaten 27 - 9.

In the game against St Peter's, we were leading well until the last innings, when mistakes in the outfield cost us the game, 11 - 9.

The last game of the first half was against St Paul's in which we failed in the final innings as against St Peter's and the score was 8 - 7 in St Paul's favour.

The team is looking forward to its trip to Whangarei in the third term in return to last years visit from them.

1st VI TENNIS NOTES 1955

Third term 1954—

The senior team concluded the season with a win over King's B, 6-3. For the first time the championships were held at the end of the year. The senior singles went to D. Dormer, the senior doubles to D. Dormer and G. Moss, and the mixed doubles were won by D. Dormer and Beryl Findlay.

First Term 1955—

The team consisted of C. Clayton. (Captain); D. Dormer; C. Kennedy; P. Kennedy; Vezich; Walker.

The team started the year with a fairly weak team having only two of last year's players in it but, unlike last year's team, it won many games after being well down. This showed that the boys were very keen to win and did not give up easily. Owing to much wet weather and the cancellation of games, the team played only two matches. V. Otahuhu College. Lost 7-2.

We were unlucky not to come out on top as most of the games were very close. Clayton won both his singles and doubles against Otahuhu's top players. We were unlucky not to have Dormer (who was ill) in this game. The result would have been much more even if he had been able to play.

V. Sacred Heart College. won 8-1

This was a good day for us as many of our players were down and then went on to win. Like ours Sacred Heart's team was very young, and needed much more practice.

The College Championships will be played in the third term.

In conclusion, we wish to thank Mr. Powell very much for the hard work done in coaching us.

BOYS ANNUAL SWIMMING SPORTS

Conditions were ideal for the swimming sports at the Olympic Pool this year. And what a day it was! No fewer than six records were broken, G. J. Jacobsen and M. Wakeley having a smashing good time! These boys did marvellously well, and so did I. Goffin winner of the Senior Championship, and K. Wakeley (younger brother of the record breaker,) Junior Champion.

The Royal Life-Saving Society has been actively concerned for more than half a century with the saving of life from drowning and other causes of asphyxia. Prompted by humanitarian ideals and encouraged by the highest patronage and leadership, the Society has always endeavoured to evolve the most efficient methods of release, rescue and resuscitation, and is eager to investigate suggestions which may help the Society's objectives.

The thanks of the S.M.T.C. Group go to the trainers, Messrs. H. Beale, C. Hicks and M. K. Venables.

Inter-secondary Schools Frostbite Sailing Championship

Narrow Neck Beach Sat. 16th April 1955

Owing to the limited number of boats available, country schools were excluded from the contest this year. Schools from the Thames Valley and Waikato areas will in future sail on the Hamilton Lake, and we hope to see a Champion of Champions contest held each year at alternative centres. The weather on race day was, to say the least, very boisterous. A hard northerly was blowing directly on to the beach at Narrow Neck, and there were thrills galore, especially during the launching process. The girl contestants experienced difficulty in maning the boats in the surf but by sheer determination and perseverance won the day and admiration of the spectators.

In this contest two races are sailed, each school being represented by a senior and junior skipper, each of whom take the boat during the contest. Our representatives this year were Graeme Laing of W4B as senior skipper, and Trevor Perry of W5B as junior skipper.

Seddon had bad luck during the first race. With Laing as skipper and Perry as forward hand and whilst lying seventh in the second lap, Perry slipped flat on to the floor boards, and the boat filled with water. After bailing out, our prize crew managed to pass two crafts, to finish thirteenth (Please note the two craft overtaken had capsized leaving only thirteen in the race.)

During the afternoon the wind increased, but with the morning's experience behind them, the crews put up a better showing and there were no capsize to brighten the day. The launching session during the afternoon was a spectacle to behold, and the experience will long be remembered by the crews concerned. With Perry at the helm and Laing as forward hand our boat finished eighth in the second race, gaining slightly from a poor start.

After the contest presentations were made to the winning crews by the Mayor of Devonport, Mr. Woodall. Club members, crews, coach, and spectators enjoyed a thrilling days entertainment, and the school must thank the committee and club members who lent their boats so willingly.

Trevor Perry and Graeme Laing wore S.M.T.C. football jerseys embellished with sports badges, and white shorts to be worthy representatives of our college.

The final results of the 1955 Inter-Secondary Schools Frostbite sailing Championship were as follows.

BOYS ATHLETIC SPORTS 1955

The annual Athletic Sports were held at the Domain on the 8th and 10th of March. On both days the weather was overcast with a light wind. This year for the first time, entries were taken at the beginning of each event. This proved very successful.

The outstanding competitors were:—

Seniors

C. Clayton, 27 pts.; R. Potatau 16 pts.; J. McLintock, 13 pts.; G. Haywood 11 pts.

Intermediates

J. Cook, J. Taylor and W. Rogers.

Juniors

R. Mincham and Fagan.

The senior sprint cup went to Haywood, E.6.A., the middle distance cup went to C. Clayton E.6.B., and the fields event cup was won by R. Potatau, W.5.A.

INTER-SECONDARY SCHOOLS' ATHLETIC MEETING 1955

The preliminaries were held on Friday 1st of April at Eden Park. Owing to the number of school entered, the meeting was run in two sections. S.M.T.C. was placed in the B grade in each section. The finals were held on Saturday, 2nd April, before a large crowd. This year Seddon had much better teams than it has had for many years. The Juniors and Intermediates won their sections by big margins, and the Senior team came 4th. The Juniors and Intermediates thus gained promotion to the A section for next year.

FIRST XV. RUGBY NOTES, 1955.

The First XV. started the season as an unknown quantity. We had five of last year's team back, but the majority of the new players were young and inexperienced. In the backs we had an exceptional amount of pace, more so than in any recent years. The forwards appeared to combine weight with mobility, but a serious lack of experience seemed, at the beginning of the season, to be our biggest handicap. The record of the team will speak for itself—Played 16, Won 8, Drawn 5, Lost 3. This, taking into account the fact that we only lost three games in the whole season, is a record that will stand up to any comparison with the best of the First Fifteens from the College. This is the record:—

v. Otahuhu College, lost 8—17.

In the first half we played against a strong wind and were down 0—8 at half-time, although it could be said that we held a territorial advantage in this half. The second half started badly for us when Cooke was taken off and we never looked the same team after this. Two penalties in front of the posts gave Otahuhu a further six points, but we fought back with a try by Mincham and a penalty and conversion by Anderton. This ended a somewhat disappointing game for us.

v. Auckland Grammar, lost 6—30.

Right up until the final 10 minutes of this game we were right in the picture. The score at this stage was 13—6 in favour of Grammar. Superior weight and fitness told in the final stages and Grammar piled on the points. Our points came from a gem of a try by Cooke on the wing after practically the whole team had handled, and a penalty by Jacobsen.

v. T.G.S., drew 11—11.

The first five minutes were all Grammar's and they scored a converted try. Tech. replied with a try by Mincham. Grammar went further into the lead with a penalty, to make the score 8—3. Seddon attacked again and from a scrum in Takapuna territory we hooked the ball and first five-eighth Anderton cut through to score under the posts, for Jacobsen to convert. Grammar replied with a penalty, and then Mincham kicked a penalty from halfway, to make the final score 11—all, a fair indication of play.

v. Avondale College, drew 6—6.

Avondale had just been headed by Auckland Grammar the week previously, and went into the field expecting victory. In this they were disappointed, though the only just. Seddon went straight into the attack, but were unable to score until from a scrum in front of the posts, Potatau received the ball from the scrum, flicked it straight back to Anderton, who drop-kicked a field goal. Half-time came with Seddon leading 3—0. For a good while in the second half it was all Avondale and in this period they scored two tries. They held grimly on to this lead until, right on time, when Anderton kicked a penalty. The game ended with the score at 6—6.

v. Sacred Heart College, won 9—3.

Within a minute of play we were leading 3—0 from a penalty by Anderton. S.H.C. replied with a penalty and half-time came with the score at 3—all. From our own goal line, lock forward Patterson picked up the ball and ran the length of the field, only to be tackled yards short of the line. From a loose ruck Potatau snapped up the ball and it spun along the backline for Taylor to dive over in the corner. Mincham added a penalty and the game ended, Seddon 9, S.H.C. 3.

v. King's College, lost 3—35.

Although outplayed in the first half, Tech. fought back in the second spell to hold the powerful King's side. We were also the first team to cross the line, Taylor scoring the try. Much of the credit must go to the forwards, who outhooked and completely subdued the King's pack. The fine tight forward play of Kaa and the leadership and line-out play were contributing factors. This was the only defeat during the second term.

v. Mt. Albert Grammar, won 6—5.

Kick and follow-up were the only sensible tactics to employ in this game, which was played at the Showgrounds in a sea of mud. In the first half, Seddon played with the wind behind them and were continually on attack. Scrum and line-outs and using the wind to the best advantage by high kicks into the corner, the inevitable soon happened when Taylor followed up a high kick to dive over for a try. Seddon kept pressing, but half-time came with the score unchanged. Play was fairly even in the second spell with, perhaps, Seddon having a slight advantage. With ten minutes to go, Anderton kicked a penalty for Seddon and Mt. Albert replied almost immediately with a good try, which they converted, to make the final score, Seddon 6, Mt. Albert 5.

v. St. Peter's School, drew 6—6.

We went on to the field feeling a little over-confident and were badly shaken when, almost straight from the kick-off, St. Peter's scored a try by the posts which they failed to convert. Seddon hit back and both Potatau and Anderton narrowly missed scoring, while Hawke was unlucky with a strong burst from the line-out. It was as a result of this play that a loose ruck formed on St. Peter's goal-line. The St. Peter's backs were found out of position and Anderton potted a field goal. Shortly before half-time Anderton kicked a penalty, to make the score 6—3. St. Peter's replied with a penalty in the second half and had slightly the better of play until shortly before the end, when Seddon were defending desperately. Anderton intercepted a pass and raced the length of the field to cross the line in a welter of tackles, which the referee found too inconclusive, and the game ended 6—all.

This left us with seven points at the end of the round, one point behind Mt. Albert, and we went into the B section.

Second Round

v. Avondale College, won 11—3.

This game was much closer than the score indicates and it was only in the final minutes that the game was decided.

v. Mt. Albert Grammar, drew 6—6.

The first half was scoreless, but Mt. Albert scored from their own goal-line to put them into the lead. The Seddon forwards were dominating play and they hit back, driving across the line for Clinton to touch down. Shortly after this Naea kicked a good penalty with the wet ball to give us the lead, but Mt. Albert came back and scored, to make the final score 6—all. In both this game and the previous one, Dormer's handling of the wet ball and his positional play were flawless and his steadiness was a great help to the rest of the team.

v. Sacred Heart College, drew 11—11.

Sacred Heart ran up eight points in as many minutes and it looked as though they would have an easy victory. As in our previous games, we fought back and scored 11 points before Sacred Heart had added to their score. A penalty by Naea started the recovery and then the backs swung into action for Anderton to cut through and hand on to Naea, who side-stepped three players to score a nice try by the posts, which he converted himself. Anderton added a penalty to this and we were in the lead by 11—8. Sacred Heart replied with a try, which evened the score, and the whistle went with the score at 11—all.

v. St. Peter's School, won 12—3.

This was the last competition game of the season and it was played in appalling conditions. We went on the field in a much more determined frame of mind than in the first game, but, as before, St. Peter's were first to score with a try in the corner. Seddon hit back and Anderton drop-kicked yet another field goal. Half-time came with no change in the score. Soon after commencement of play, Naea kicked a good penalty and then, from a kick through, Mincham dived on the ball for a try. Anderton added a penalty, to make the final score 12—3.

NON-COMPETITION GAMES

v. Pukekohe High School, won 20—3.

Pukekohe kicked off and scored almost immediately. We hit back and Naea picked his way through the High School backs for a try. Anderton followed this effort with a dropkick from a wide angle, to make the half-time score 6—3. In the second half the Seddon backs struck a good combination and for the first time started to work smoothly. First, Cooke came in from the wing and raced through a gap to score. Mincham kicked a penalty, then Dormer came up into the backline to slide through and kick ahead to find the opposition out of position for Anderton to touch down. Naea converted and kicked a penalty for the game to end, Seddon 20, P.H.S. 3.

v. Hamilton High School, won 17—6.

Hamilton opened the scoring with a penalty and then, from a good back movement, McIntock raced over in the corner. We came to life in the second half, but through handling mistakes right on the line failed to score. Then Anderton fielded a high kick about 40 yards out and, with plenty of time to work in, drop-kicked a beautiful field goal. This enlivened Seddon and first Jacobsen kicked a penalty, to make the score 9—3; Doughty then made a strong run downfield, only to be tackled short of the line. From the loose ruck the ball sped to Taylor, who beat his man to score. Yet another Seddon attack saw Mincham go over in the corner, for Naea to convert from the sideline. Right on time Hamilton scored a well-deserved try, to make the final score, Seddon 17, Hamilton 6.

v. Taumarunui, Won 12—6.

This trip had been looked forward to by the whole team. The game was evenly contested with perhaps Seddon having the advantage of size in the forwards and pace in the backs. For Seddon, tries were scored by Doughty and Mincham, while Jacobsen and Naea kicked penalties.

v. Stratford High School, won 9—3.

Stratford had three days in Auckland and during this time there was a visit to the Naval Base, a harbour trip and a dance, besides the Rugby fixture. The game was played at a fast pace, with Seddon doing most of the attacking. The points came from two penalties by Naea and a field goal by Anderton (his seventh this season).

And so ended the 1955 season. We were runners-up to Mt. Albert Grammar in the B section, which had two complete rounds for the first time. Congratulations are due to Potatau for his excellent captaincy, and to Anderton for his good all-round play. Mr. Brooking fully deserves the success gained by the First XV. He was a constant inspiration to the team and his advice and enthusiasm were invaluable.

We wish to thank Mr. Scott for the generous time he allowed for our trips, and members of the Staff and pupils for their support and interest.

FOURTH GRADE C RUGBY NOTES

On the whole our team had a successful and enjoyable season. Although on the first Saturday we could muster only about ten men, by the end of the season we were almost embarrassed by the numbers who wanted a game. We succeeded in coming third in the competition, being beaten only by Takapuna and Penrose, the eventual winner of this grade.

Perhaps the greatest thing about our team was its fighting spirit. We played our best when the odds against us were greatest. For the first half of the season we were fortunate to have Sutcliffe as a most enthusiastic and inspiring captain. We were sorry that, first illness and then broken ribs put him out of the latter part of the season. However, Pumpi and Roberts stepped into the breach, and led the team very well indeed.

SIXTH GRADE A RUGBY NOTES

Our Sixth Grade A team did not have a very successful season. At times, however, we played very good football and we felt that, with a little more luck, we could have won a few more games.

Oram, our captain, played consistently well at half-back, and Jaffray was our best forward. Hall, Newton and Goodwin shone in the line-outs.

A combined Sixth A and B team journeyed to Hamilton and a successful and extremely enjoyable trip ended the season.

Back: McLaren (E.4E.), Walkedene (W.3B.), Veare (W.3D.), Shepherd (E.3B. Vice-Capt.), Marshall (E.4D.), Hodgkinson (E.3A.), Oram (W.5A., Capt.).

Forwards: Godwin (E.3A.), Whyte (E.3B.), King (E.3D.), Baker (E.3D.), Newton (E.3D.), Greenwood (W.3A.), Hall (W.3A.), Jaffray (W.4C.).

SIXTH GRADE B TEAM

Although only few games were won, we played with a will, often missing victory by a mere point or two. Unfortunately, sickness played havoc with our boys, and numerically we were often woefully weak.

The stalwarts of the team were Phillimore (Capt.), Connell (Vice-Capt.), Anderson, Small, Tanner, McArthur, Redwood, Dixon, Banks, Kennedy, Brindle, Proud, Bell, Daly and Rose.

FIRST HOCKEY XI

The team this year was comprised of many young players, most of them inexperienced in playing constructive hockey. This handicap was soon overcome after the first round of championship matches, and the team settled down to playing some sparkling hockey. Although we had hoped to be near the top of the ladder in championship points, we finished up fourth.

This year we enjoyed our trip to Hamilton High School, where we played their First XI. The match was fairly even in the first half, but in the second spell we managed to run up a comfortable lead. We scored eight goals to their two.

Whangarei paid us a return visit, but the match had to be abandoned on account of heavy rain. We had hoped for a satisfactory result.

In the last week of the second term we entertained Taumarunui High School Hockey team for three days. The match was played on a very fast ground which suited us perfectly. Apparently it suited our visitors better, for they defeated us by six goals to three.

FIRST XI, 1955.

Standing, from left: I. Hollis, J. Cooke, E. Clinton, B. Anderson, K. Naea. Sitting: K. Noble, W. Oliver, J. Anderton (Capt.), I. McLachlan, R. Sissons, Mr. N. R. Page.

FIRST SOCCER XI, 1955.

K. Scott G. Mullenger, B. Anderson, B. Parr. G. Dobrec, S. Hollis, I. Peden, B. Gibson, L. Chalklen. R. Van Strieland, J. Davison, C. Clayton, (Capt.) P. Braniff, E. Emmerton, Mr. R. W. Riddolls.

The highlight of the season was the New Zealand Secondary School Hockey Tournament, held in three centres, Wellington, Taumarunui and Tauranga. We participated in the major tournament in Wellington. Here 16 teams were gathered, representing 16 secondary schools. The tournament was played off in four sections, each section winner playing off in the semi-finals and the winners then met in the final.

We had two very strong teams to compete against. Our first match was against Rongotai, a very good team given room to work in. They attacked right from the first bully, but our team played very gallantly and repelled their furious attacks. There was no score in the first 15 minutes, which gave us time enough to loosen our travel weary bodies, and the team played superb fast hockey. The half-time score was 2-1 in their favour. We equalised the score within minutes of the restart. The excellent positional play and speed of our players caught the Rongotai players off guard and we came very close to adding a few more goals. Their combination broke down completely in the latter stages of the match and we scored two quick goals to their one. The match ended with Tech. 4, Rongotai 3.

Our next match was against Christchurch High School, another very strong team which ultimately won the tournament. This match was spoiled by the overnight rain, which made the clayish ground very slippery and the players had to play Rugby-Hockey, at which we are not very good. Half-time score was 2-all, but in the second half their better tactics on a muddy ground defeated us five goals to two.

On the third day we played against Mt. Roskill's improving eleven. The condition of the ground was deplorable. The tournament officials' comment was, "Worst conditions in the history of the tournament." Even in such conditions we managed to score seven goals to nil.

While in Wellington we visited the House of Representatives through the kind arrangements made by Mr. Halstead, M.P. for Tamaki. With us we took Auckland Grammar, Mt. Roskill and St. Kentigern.

We have had a very enjoyable hockey season and we wish to thank those members of the Staff and pupils who took a keen interest in the team and who came and watched us playing. Our very sincere thanks go to Mr. Scott, who has been very kind in allowing us so many wonderful trips. We are also very grateful to Mr. Carnachan for his excellent management and for his valuable help.

Following are the scores of our championship matches:-

- v. Avondale, 1st round, lost 3 nil; 2nd round, lost 5-4.
 - v. Auckland Grammar B, 1st round, won 5-1; 2nd round, lost 5-3.
 - v. Auckland Grammar B, 1st round, lost 9-2; 2nd round, lost 5-4.
 - v. Takapuna, 1st round, lost 4-3.
 - v. Mt. Albert, 1st round, lost 5-3; 2nd round, drew 3-3.
 - v. Otahuhu, 1st round, won 3-2; 2nd round, won 5 nil.
 - v. King's College, 1st round, won 5 nil.
- The team: M. Ranchhod (Capt.), B. P. Vezich (Vice-Capt.), K. L. Hounslow, G. C. Mitchell, W. Oliver, T. M. G. Purdie, T. A. Harris, N. W. Tanner, G. J. S. Anderson, J. E. Miller, J. Stevens.
- Others who played: G. J. Davis, D. G. Gabb, R. H. McKinley, K. Patterson.

FIRST SOCCER XI.

This year's First Soccer XI was a somewhat younger team than the first XI. Teams from the other schools, although we had six of last year's team back. This meant that most of our boys were only Fifth Formers, but what they lacked in age they made up in their play.

This year's team comprised C. D. Clayton (Capt.), J. Davidson (Vice-Capt.), B. Anderson, B. Gibson, E. Emmerton, P. Braniff, I. Pedon, L. Chalkin, A. Van Strie-land, G. Mullenger, K. Scott, G. Dobrec, S. Hollis and B. Parr. Only five boys were of senior age.

Congratulations must go to P. Braniff, who played for Auckland in the North Island under sixteen competition. This team won the tournament.

The team finished fourth in the competition. We had many casualties during the season and this handicapped us to a large extent, but we started the season off well by beating Auckland Grammar School, but later in the season they beat us easily. The best game of the season was probably our last game against Avondale College. They were runners-up in the championship. After a very even game throughout we could not hold them off in the last few minutes and they won 3-2.

Games played:

- v. Mt. Albert, lost 6-1, lost 5-0.
- v. Otahuhu College, won 3-1, won 2-0, lost 4-3.

- v. Avondale College, lost 6—0, lost 2—0, lost 3—2.
 v. Auckland Grammar School, won 1—0, lost 8—0, lost 3—0.
 v. Ponsonby, won 12—2.
 v. Suburbs, won 5—1.
 v. Hamilton Tech., won 8—1.
 v. Tauranga, won 3—0.

Games won 7, games lost 8, points for 40, against 42.

Hamilton Trip.

On the 12th July, a Tuesday morning, we left by bus for Hamilton. Accompanying us were the First Hockey, Rugby and Basketball teams. We arrived at Hamilton about 1 p.m. and were taken straight to the football ground. The game commenced with some fast moves by Hamilton which woke our drowsy fullbacks and set them hard on defence. Davidson scored in the first minute and a minute later he scored again. Within the next four minutes Dobrec and Braniff had scored another two. By half-time we had a 5—nil lead. The second half resulted in another three goals in our favour and one well-earned goal to Hamilton which they scored in the last ten minutes.

Scorers: Davidson 3, Mullinger 2, Dobrec 2, Braniff 1.

We were treated to a very pleasant afternoon tea by the girls of Hamilton Tech. We finally left by bus at 4.15 and arrived back about 6.30. The trip was a very enjoyable break and every member of the party enjoyed himself.

Whangarei Visit.

We were visited this year by the Whangarei Soccer team. Upon their arrival they were treated to lunch by the cookery girls. Owing to bad weather we were unable to play them. However, the next day they were taken from their billets to Mt. Albert Grammar School, where they were beaten.

Tauranga Trip.

Our trip to Tauranga was really good fun. Mr. Riddolls was unable to come with us on this trip and Mr. Maguire gave of his own time to keep an eye on us. We left by bus from the terminal at 9.30 a.m. and arrived there at about 2.30 p.m.

The next day, in spite of pouring rain, we played and beat Tauranga 3—0. The game was quite an exciting one, with both sides pressing hard and attacking. Although we generally had the upper hand, they were by no means overwhelmed and repelled with attacks that once nearly flattened our defence.

We left next day after a happy and very memorable trip, which was enjoyed by both sides.

Coach's Comment:

The boys played good football, turned out smartly, kept quiet on the field, and played to the whistle. Those points are more important than winning matches.

INTERMEDIATE A SOCCER TEAM

Although the team was unplaced in its section, it enjoyed a good season. The manner in which the team turned out and the spirit in which the games were played was excellent.

The regular team was Hunter, Smith, Morris, Cammel, Lancaster (Captain), Ambrose, Simpson, Wong, King, Wright, McQuoid and Cook. Brook, who left half-way through the season, gave great strength to the inside forwards.

Our sincere thanks go to Mr. Maguire for all the help and encouragement he has given the team throughout the season.

INTERMEDIATE B SOCCER TEAM

The regular team was Nash, Wong, Collings, Casper, Beggs, Walpole, Emsley, Stephenson, Malpas, Webster, Wright, Shirtcliffe, Beer (Vice-Capt.), and Scriven (Capt.)

Wright was the original captain in the early part of the season, but unfortunately he had to leave us to play for the Intermediate A's.

We wish to thank Mr. Maguire, our coach, for his keen interest in us during practice.

INTERMEDIATE D SOCCER

Although the team only had a few wins, it kept together exceptionally well. The team consisted of Mataford, Rossiter, Blockly, White, Beard, Davison, Smith, Moir, Hemingway and Leng (Capt.). The team thanks Mr. George for being a very conscientious coach.

Dear Sir,

I think that we should have a day's holiday after the exams as other schools do. Also, we should have half a day off after each exam so that we could learn the lessons for the next one. It does make it rather difficult when we have two or three exams in one day for we have so much to remember.

TECHNICAL COLLEGE OLD BOYS' AMATEUR ATHLETIC CLUB, 1954-55.

The highlight of the year for the Club and probably for athletics in Auckland, was the Silver Jubilee of the Onehunga to Auckland Road Race. This open road race was instituted by the Tech. Old Boys' Club 25 years ago and sponsored annually by them ever since. This year drew record entries for the race; in fact, a record for any race of the same nature. The event was run as in the past with A & B. Grades and in addition a Veterans' Race was incorporated to mark the jubilee. Those eligible for the veterans were competitors in the first six years. This proved a very successful event and amongst the 19 starters were many past greats in N.Z. athletics. Each of the 13 to finish the course received a silver medalion. Conditions for the race were perfect and it was fitting in the jubilee that the record for the race should be bettered by the first three runners in the A Grade.

Tech. have every reason to be proud of the performance of L. Thornton, who left the College at the end of last year. He ran very well to finish fourth in the B Grade and win the Sealed Handicap.

In the evening of the race an excellent dinner was put on at the Station Hotel for nearly 100 guests. This was a very enjoyable function and the Club is happy to record its thanks to the Principal of the College, Mr. H. M. Scott, for his attendance as one of the main speakers. Many sincere tributes by past athletes and leading administrators were made about the large bearing Tech. Old Boys have had on the advancement and fostering of the sport in Auckland.

The Club's two senior officers, Alwyn Moon, President, and John J. O'Hara, Captain, both take a very keen interest in the athletics at the College and it is very pleasing to them, along with the other members of the Club, to see the splendid efforts of the College teams in the Inter-Secondary Athletics. The teams this last two seasons have established a very high standard for future teams to live up to and we, the Old Boys, firmly believe they are capable of it and we will be willing to assist in every way possible.

GIRLS' SPORTS NOTES

TECHNICAL OLD GIRLS' HOCKEY CLUB

In last year's Seddonian we were very fortunate in being able to give you a short history of this Club.

Early this season we had quite a number of enquiries from girls leaving S.M.T.C. who wished to carry on the grand game of hockey. These girls were placed in our Senior Reserve and Intermediate Reserve teams.

Yvonne Brown, Fay Maiden and Judy Anderson all made the Senior Reserve team and these three girls are playing very stout hockey indeed. Yvonne, in fact, has acted as reserve for the Senior team and when called upon has ably filled the position.

By having a training run every Wednesday at Fowlds Park, we are able to help and encourage our up-an-coming younger players. It is our aim to concentrate on the improvement of play with the younger players.

In this year's successful Auckland Rep team that won the much envied K Cup, Tech. O.G. had no less than five of their players in the team, including the Captain and Vice-Captain. Of these five, three were selected for the North Island team, which was again successful.

Our Senior team includes a number of young ex-Seddon players and these girls have been true club members. I might add that this team won both the seven-a-side and Championship games this year without the loss of a single point. This is no mean feat.

Our first meeting for 1956 will be held towards the end of February, so if you are intending to carry on hockey as your winter sport next year, please write to me as soon as possible and I shall be only too pleased to give you any information you may require regarding the Club.

ARAHU BASKETBALL CLUB

This year the Club has five teams playing in the Auckland Basketball Association competitions on Saturday. We have been pleased to welcome some of the players who left school at the end of 1954 and several of them have been included in representative trials, though not all of them have made the teams.

In the Senior team, June Waititi and Ouida Morris were selected to play in the Auckland side which competed in the N.Z. Championships in Christchurch. June added a further feather to her cap by being selected as a member of the North Island team.

Carolyn Sinton, a newcomer to the Senior ranks and an immediate past pupil, was included in the "under 20" team from the Senior grade and visited Wellington with the team.

Captain Lois Watson, of the Reserve Grade team, played in the Grade representative match against Manawatu. Noeline Lett, of the Senior B team, was included in the grade trials, but did not make the team.

The Second Grade team, although it is very high on the championship table, did not have any reps. in its number, but the Sixth Grade team had its captain, Nola Williams, included in the Grade representative team which travelled to Helensville.

At the time of writing, the Senior team, though not as successful as in 1952 and 1953, has every possibility of finishing as runners-up in the Senior grade. Although not championship winners in any of the grades, the teams have performed well and have been a credit to their club.

Newcomers are always welcomed and it is hoped that Basketball players who are leaving school at the end of this year will join up with the club for next season. Players wishing to do this should contact Mrs. Joan Durbin, 124 Elstree Avenue, Panmure, E.2., and notices of practice will be forwarded to them.

SEDDON BADMINTON CLUB

This season the club has reduced its inter-club activities to increase the general standard and provide more intensive coaching of the juniors. This has proved a wise move as already there is a marked improvement in the standard of the junior members. Colin Stevens, is a product of our coaching class of last year is showing every indication of becoming a top ranking player. Another keen young member recently to come from the College, Barbara Kipling is also showing considerable promise.

GIRLS' A BASKETBALL TEAM

Back Row: F. Espie, B. Fletcher, E. Veimann, M. McKenzie, Y. Beasley, M. Wea, Miss Gini.
Front Row: O. Schaunkel, S. Mashlan (Vice-Capt.), L. Morris (Capt.), D. McKenna, W. Saunders.

GIRLS' A HOCKEY TEAM

Back Row: N. Whitford, M. Shepherd, L. Williams, F. Cauty, J. Phillips, J. Godwin, Miss Gini.
Front Row: S. Renata, R. Nodder (Vice-Capt.), B. Barrie (Capt.), J. Watt, D. Saddington.

In the four inter-club matches the Club has played so far this season they have been able to give a good account of themselves.

The Club is grateful for the valuable assistance given by Mr. J. Carnahan in the formation of the junior coaching class of pupils at the College. The class has made steady progress under the capable guidance of the Club Captain, E. Owens, assisted by B. Marshall. It is from these enthusiasts the Club can expect to gain the nucleus of its playing strength in the years to come.

Since the Club was formed six years ago a spirit of friendliness and co-operation has prevailed. Seddon won the Auckland C. Grade championships the season before last and with the younger players coming on it should not be long before we are seriously challenging the leaders in the higher grades. A very keen committee headed by John J. O'Hara, President, and Lee Anlezark, (now Mrs. Seal.) secretary, have kept the Club on a very sound footing. It is hoped that many young players or intending players will carry on the good work by joining the Club on leaving the College. If you have any enquires contact the Hon. Secretary Mrs. L. Seal, 579a New North Rd, Kingsland, S.W.1.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC SPORTS

These were held in the Olympic Stadium on Tuesday, 22nd March.

There were a few scattered showers and the track was a little slippery. There was a head wind.

A remarkable performance was put up by the College's rising athletic star, Pat Allen. However, Susan Mashlan provided stern opposition and Pat had some close calls. A surprise to all was the very sound performance of June Garrod, although she won few points in the Championship. The results were:—

CRICKET NOTES

Under the guidance of our coach, Miss Gini, and the leadership of Lynette Morris and Susanne Mashlan, the Girls' First Cricket XI had a reasonably successful and interesting season in the Intermediate Grade Championship of the A.W.C.A. As usual, our playing fields were Melville Park, Windmill Road and the Domain. Members were as follows: Lynette Morris, Susanne Mashlan, Ann Hunter, Merle Nissen, Yvonne Beasley, Dorothy Saddington, Yvonne Browne, Fay Espie, Nancy Healey, Patricia Robinson, Colleen Bell and Judith Emsley.

Showing the most consistent form as bowlers were D. Saddington and S. Mashlan. Most of the girls tried their hand at a little bowling and, without exception, have improved tremendously.

Batting honours go to M. Nissen and D. Saddington, both girls being selected for the Auckland Int. Grade rep. team. Although there was no one of really outstanding batting talent in the team, over the season as a whole, the number of "ducks" appearing in the score-book was particularly small, especially considering the number of new recruits we had.

A typical feature of Seddon's cricket teams (girls, of course) is their keenness and aptitude at fielding. Over the season, we saw some brilliant catches taken, and it was noticeable the proportion of opposing players caught out compared with those bowled, etc.

Backing-up is a phase of the game which came slowly to the girls — particularly with regard to batting. As the season progressed, however, the habit of backing-up became second nature to them.

Because of the lack of umpires all team members found themselves called upon at some time or another to act in this capacity. One good aspect arising from that situation was that it encouraged a better and fuller understanding of the rules of the game.

It is a pity that more Inter-School fixtures cannot be arranged to make the cricket season a little more interesting (at present, our only fixture of this kind is against Mt. Roskill). However, we had compensation such as being allowed time off school one afternoon to watch the English tourists play at Eden Park.

It would be pleasing to see as many girls as possible return next year to carry on the good work and to see that those leaving make full use of all they have learned while playing for Seddon.

Thanks go to Miss Gini, our playing coach, who has devoted much of her time and patience to instructing us on Tuesday afternoons.

GIRLS' TENNIS NOTES

Tennis is the most popular sport on the girls' side of the College. Every Tuesday the girls go out to Windmill Road Mt. Eden, where they are placed into groups, playing against girls of their own standard, while the girls' tennis teams practice for their inter-school competitions on Saturdays.

This year we entered three tennis teams in the inter-school competition. One of the highlights of the Tennis Season was the defeat of St. Cuthbert's by our Intermediate Team led by Barbara Eade. The Junior tennis team has done very well also, seeing that it is the first time that these girls have played for the College. The star of the Senior team is Janet Leslie, who won many of her games.

Tennis is played only in the first and third terms, and during the latter everyone is interested to see who will win the championships. At the end of 1954 there were some unexpected surprises. The Senior Singles was won by Beverly Barry, who defeated Beryl Findlay in a very close and exciting match, 6-2, 5-6, 6-4. The Senior Doubles was won by Barbara Corbett and Valerie Organ. The Junior singles by Barbara Eade, who defeated Marlene Foubister. The Junior Doubles went to Marlene Foubister and Roslyn Wilkins. The Mixed Doubles Tournament, won by Beryl Findlay and D. Dormer, was also played during the last term. A team of six girls visited the new Mt. Roskill Grammar School at the end of the year, and won their matches by six games to four.

Our special thanks go to Miss Campbell and the other members of the staff who so kindly helped all the girls.

GIRLS' SWIMMING SPORTS

Although the water was cool, the weather was kind, with the sun doing its best most of the time.

Hine Kawarua excelled herself in the Championship and age races. Her speed and graceful style helped her House to win, and gained the College valuable points at the Inter-Secondary Schools Championships. The results were:

- Junior Champ. Freestyle 33 1/3 yards—
J. Edwards (W) 1st, F. Espie (S) 2nd, J. Wynyard (B), J. Garvie (B) equal 3rd.
- Senior Champ. Freestyle 33 1/3 yards—
H. Kawerua (W) 1st, R. Brown (H) 2nd, J. Simmonds (B) 3rd.
- Open Freestyle 33 1/3 yards—
H. Brewer (W) 1st, S. Marshlan (S) 2nd, J. Emsley (H) 3rd.
- Senior Champ. Breaststroke 33 1/3 yards—

Senior Championship points—
J. Simmonds (B) 8½, 1st; H. Kawerua (W) 7½ 2nd, R. Browne (H) 3, 3rd.

GIRLS FIRST HOCKEY XI NOTES

The first hockey team started out this year with only three old hands, Dorothy Saddington, R.I., Faye Cauty, C.H., and Beverley Barry, C.F., captain. Eight deservng players from last years junior team joined us and we had a first class hockey eleven, due to the good coaching of Mrs. Gooder. These players are: Jeanette Godwin, R.W.; Mary Shepherd, L.L.; Sylvia Renata, L.W.; Leslie Williams, L.H.; Joan Phillips, R.H.; Raewyn Nodder, L.B. (Vice-Capt.); Noeleen Whitford, R.B., and Julie Watt, G.K.

Throughout the season we have had good fun, three lovely trips and many strenuous games and practices. We have no emergencies for Saturdays, but Gwen Black and Jill Simmonds came to the rescue on several occasions, and I thank all the team for their loyalty in playing every Saturday. Out of 18 Saturday matches, we have won 12, drawn one and lost five, having very good wins, and our losses only being by one or two goals.

On Queen's Birthday week-end we entered in a Seven-a-Side Tournament. In this we reached the semi-finals, where we were defeated by Windsor by one penalty corner, which was very disappointing. In the running, Sylvia Renata came second in the 100 Yards, and a team of four was played second in the Relay.

Our first trip of the year was to Pukekohe. At Pukekohe we found many friends from last years team and had a most enjoyable game in six inches of muddy water. We were more used to firm fields and tropical conditions, and so Pukekohe defeated us by three goals to one.

After that we took part in an Auckland Secondary School competition. Most schools around Auckland entered and we were unfortunate to draw Avondale College in the first game, where they defeated us 5-0. After that we played Mt. Roskill and won 2-0. In our third game, we played Pukekohe and defeated them 3-3. This made us the winners of the "Plate." We are now even with Pukekohe, and it is up to next year's team to keep up our name.

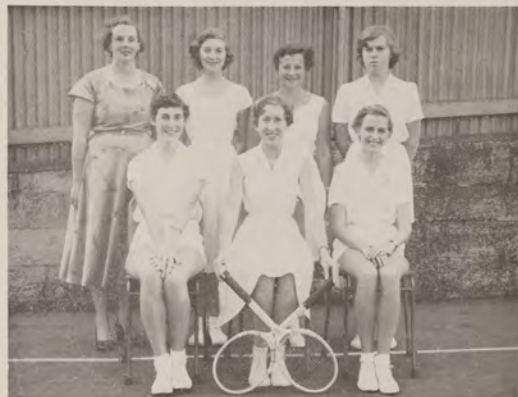

Our second trip was to Hamilton High School. This trip was longer and made in beautiful weather. The Hamilton grounds were in good condition and an even game was played. We were leading 1-0 until the last five minutes, when Hamilton fought hard for a goal, which they got, making a draw of 1-1.

This year our team went on the first long trip it has ever had. None of us had been billeted before, so it was more exciting. We left for Dargaville on the Sunday with the Second Rugby team. We were fortunate to have good weather for the game on Monday, although the whole centre of the field was extremely muddy. Being used to playing to the centre of the field, we found it most difficult to keep out of the mud, and did more floundering about than good play. During the first half Dargaville being used to the muddy conditions, were leading 3-1, but during the second half we managed to hold them and scored another goal, losing by three goals to two. Every girl enjoyed her visit and we arrived home on Tuesday in the best of spirits—except Jill!

During the August holidays there was a three-day hockey tournament held in Auckland for all Secondary Schools in the Auckland Province. Here we returned our hospitality to Dargaville when we billeted them on this occasion. After this we got to know the girls very well and made many friends. In our section we played Mt. Roskill Grammar and at the end of the game the score was 11-all. It was a rule that there were to be no draws and the game had to continue until one side scored. We kept playing, a hard and very fast game; this went on for ten minutes and there was still no score, so it had to be left as a draw. Next we played Te-Toki, who played a rougher game of hockey than we, but we managed to hold out till the end of the game with a score of 0-0. Here again we played extra time and Te-Toki scored, winning 1-0. Our third game was against Te Kuiti High School. Te Kuiti had beaten Mt. Roskill the day before, so we went on ready for a hard game. At half-time the score was 0-0, but in the second half we got the better of them and won 2-0. This put us second in our section and Te-Toki went to the quarter-finals. The tournament was finally won by Whangarei Girls' High School, who played expert hockey.

After all that hockey we had a spell for two weeks while the Auckland Representative teams travelled. Faye Cauty, our centre half, represented Auckland in our Grade and travelled to Rodney. This was a great honour for the team.

To finish the season we are to play a Knock-Out Competition, and perhaps we might make the top this time? If we don't we hope that next years' team will do their best for the school, and I sincerely hope they have a good season as we have had.

We wish to thank Mr. Scott, Miss Ryburn and Miss Gini for allowing us to travel, and we are very grateful for the time they spent in ensuring we had our games and a good time.

JUNIOR HOCKEY NOTES

This year we did not start half as well as we would have liked to. Nevertheless, we can say that we have won five games during the season.

In the Seven-a-Side Tournament, we did quite well, as we played one short. We won our first game from Mt. Roskill B, and also our second game from Westmere A. This put us into the semi-finals, but, unfortunately, Avondale B beat us, in a close game, by a penalty corner. In the Knock-Out Competition (last game of the season) we were two players short. But we put our heels into it and, in our first game, against Otahuhu A, we had a very even game. In the end the score was nil-all, so we had to continue on until one side scored. After ten minutes hard play, we were fortunate to win by a penalty corner. In our second game, against Avondale A, we were not so lucky, but held out until after half-time, when Avondale scored two goals.

During the season we have had an enjoyable time together, although it has, at times, been disappointing to the rest of the team when unreliable players have not turned up on Saturdays. I am sure, if we had a full team every Saturday, we would have had more success.

Our congratulations go to Gwen Black and Jill Simmonds, who were selected for the Junior Representative Trials.

We all wish to thank Mrs. Gooder very much for her good coaching and practises we have had on Tuesdays, and to those in the team who are coming back next year — we wish you the best of luck.

BASKETBALL NOTES

Basketball has received more enthusiasm in the College this year and we had sufficient keen girls to enter an extra team competition. This makes a total of four teams entered under the following grades: Senior Reserve, Senior B, Third Grade and Fourth Grade.

As far as Association matches are concerned, all teams meet much older and more experienced teams, some of which have played together for many years. It is a pity we cannot have our own school competition as the boys do. This would certainly make for easier running of the A.B.A. This is a particular disadvantage to the A team, which has very young and very short players in comparison with former years.

With regard to Inter-School matches, matches, two of the best games we played were against Hamilton and Stratford. In the former match the team played an excellent — almost perfect — combination. Unfortunately the girls were not as fit as they should have been and could not keep up with the very fast pace they had set in the first spell. The game saw-sawed tensely all the time and Hamilton overtook our half-time lead to win 25—21. Against Stratford I think the weak link was the defence. With one girl out because of a broken wrist, we were forced to play with another fourth, who gave a very good showing indeed. The Seddon team was not at its peak and, although they brightened up the game at times with some fast-passing combinations, on the whole they did not play as well as they did against Hamilton. Stratford definitely had the faster and fitter team, with excellent defence. Final score was 26—14.

At the Inter-Secondary Basketball sports at Windmill Road, all teams played well. The A team gave a good showing of its colours, defeating Kelston High, Northcote College, and Epsom Grammar, but had a rather one-sided game against Queen Victoria College (winners of the Senior Grade). Three out of four wins gave us second place in our section. The B team managed to reach the semi-finals, where they were eliminated by Otahuhu College.

Although the girls are very keen on their game, lack of support is very discouraging. Many thanks to some members of the other First teams who turned up occasionally to see us play.

When I look through the Seddonian and note the number of sports the boys play throughout the year, it grieves me to think of the two summer and two winter sports the girls have the choice of playing on Saturdays. Softball, Indoor Basketball or Netball, given a chance, would become very popular in the College and some girls would find the aptitude for these games that they do not have for others. Why not give them a chance? No doubt, there would be many difficulties to overcome before this could happen, but surely it would be well worth the efforts involved.

On the whole, it has been a good season, with one or two setbacks. On our various trips away we were chaperoned by Miss Gini. It seems to me that Miss Gini has a lot to do for girls' sports in the College. Surely a full-time basketball coach would relieve her of a very big burden—especially as we know how keen Miss Gini is on hockey, and it would be to the ultimate benefit of the teams.

THE CHARM OF SPORT

Any sport has charm—a charm that is peculiar to itself—but one of the sports that I like most is cricket. I am not the only one to define its charms.

Men and Women, mostly men, for generations past have raved, literally raved, about its charms.

On a peaceful afternoon there is nothing more pleasant than to stand out on a lovely green field with your attention riveted on the ball that has just left the bowler's hand; to hear the ping as it connects with the bat; then to spring to attention as it speeds out towards you. Or to hear the snick as the ball leaves your own hand, gathers pace as it proceeds on its way down the wicket, then hear the snap as it strikes the wicket and the bails go flying.

No matter what position is played enjoyment can be gained. Even if you are only a spectator, enjoyment can be gained from watching it. Think of sitting under a shady tree in company with many others watching the white clad figures move to their respective places in the field, now and then breaking into life to chase a ball across the field. Or to see a perfect partnership in the batting hitting up sixes and fours in all directions. From any of these things the spectator gains enjoyment.

One could go on for ever about the charms of cricket for they are innumerable but a stop must be made sometime. Let it suffice to say that men all over the world have found out its charms and surely all these men could not be wrong.

Ann Hunter C.VI.

THE ROWING MARATHON

"Are you ready, now!" The fragile craft shot forward. Sixty odd feet of craftsmanship—brass, plywood and leather were off across the glass calm of the morning tide.

Forty-five minutes. The sweat trickles down my back, and into my eyes. I lick my lips and taste the salty tang. My nose begins to run yet I cannot let go the oar. My eyes sting as the sweat gets at them too.

Eighty-five minutes! Wrists and legs ache. But on we go like a giant machine. The minutes slip by, and the miles. Our course twists and turns past mangroves, between shingle banks, in and out of boats moored close together. Then suddenly "Easy—all!" We need no second bidding and eight bodies slump forward over eight oars. From the bank of the river a seagull screeches out quite unimpressed at our feat. We had scattered the sprats it was watching. We managed to straighten up eventually and look towards a small group of people there. "Hullo there!" someone shouted. Our row is over.

GIRLS' HOUSE NOTES

HINDLEY HOUSE NOTES

Mistress: Miss Worrall.

House Captain: Beverley Barry.

Deputy-Captain: Joyce McCaskill.

Committee: Carol Shone, Joan Hammond, Ngaire Codlin.

This year the members of Hindley House entered with great enthusiasm into the Swimming Sports. We were defeated for first place by Wellesley House. We have no outstanding swimmers, but the whole house entered in a keen spirit and we had some good placings in the open events. R. Brown, P. Dingle and E. Butler swam well.

Unfortunately, in the Athletic Sports, we lacked seniors, only having two entries in the Senior and one in the Intermediate Championship. However, they made a brilliant effort in the ball games and gained a number of points. Luckily, our Juniors had many successes and well-earned places. D. Barry was third in the Senior Championship and Y. Noyes came home third in most running events. D. Reid was second in the Junior Championship and J. Hammond won the Junior High Jump.

We are represented in all sports and groups throughout the College. We have five prefects in the House, Beverley Subritz, Dorothy Martin, Joyce McCaskill, Lilian Morris and Beverley Barry. Our congratulations go to Jean Clarricoats on being the only girl in the drama production, "Treasure Island." This is a great honour to our House.

We are represented in the following sports:—

Basketball: A. D. McKenna; B. N. Grace; Third Form, K. Satherley, G. Smith, B. Scott, E. Myles, N. Anderson.

Hockey: Faye Cauty, B. Barry, G. Black.

Cricket: J. Emslie.

Tennis: Senior, B. Barry; Junior, W. Anderson.

On behalf of the Hindley girls, I wish to take this opportunity to thank Miss Worrall for the way she has endeavoured to further the interests of the House. And to all members of the House who are leaving this year, we wish the very best of luck, and to those who remain we entrust the charge of upholding the reputation of Hindley House, both on the playing field and in the classroom.

BINNS HOUSE NOTES, 1955.

House Mistress: Miss Davies.

Assistant House Mistresses: Miss Downs, Miss Miles, Mrs. Montgomery.

House Captain: Jill Simmonds.

Vice-Captain: Sylvia Renata.

Committee: Pat Allen, Marilyn Lees.

Binns began the year badly, but has improved considerably since. The Annual Swimming Sports were held at the Shelly Beach Baths, and we were very proud when the Captain of the House won the Senior Championship. In the final count we were placed third, and our congratulations go to the winners.

The most exciting day of the year was at the Athletic Sports, held at Sarawai Park, for Binns came out on top, being more than 30 points ahead of Seddon. Again we retained the Senior Championship—thanks to Pat Allen, who ran well in all events. Sylvia Renata came second in the Intermediate Championship, and Rae White third in the Junior Championship.

We are well represented on the tennis court by Beverley Fletcher, Marjorie McKenzie, Dawn Olsen, Hilary Gether, Dawn Josephs and Dawn Lunn. Another popular sport is cricket. In the First XI, Dorothy Saddington represents us, and in the Junior team E. Gray and B. Nissen.

Our Captain, Sylvia Renata, and Dorothy Saddington are all going on a well-earned trip to Dargaville. Other hockey players in Binns are E. Kennedy and M. Lees.

We wish to thank all the Mistresses of the House, especially Miss Davies, for their help during the year.

SEDDON HOUSE NOTES

House Mistresses: Mrs. Lane, Miss Manchester, Mrs. Townsend.

House Captain: Lynette Morris.

Deputy-House Captain: Susanne Mashlan.

Seddon House has more than held its own this year in all phases of Inter-House activity and competition. At the Annual Swimming Sports at Shelly Beach Baths we finished second in the final points to Wellesley—congratulations to Wellesley. Those who contributed to our points were: F. Espie (runner-up, Jun. Champs); L. Morris and O. Schaumkel (1st Sen. Dive, 2nd Open Dive respectively); S. Mashlan (1st Over 15 Age Race). All three places in the Potato Race were filled by Seddon girls, 1st P. Andrew, 2nd O. Schaumkel, 3rd J. Hedley. Most of these girls represented the College in the Inter-Secondary Swimming Sports at Otahuhu College.

Seddon again took second place in final points in the College Athletic Sports at Sarawai Park. Best performances came from S. Mashlan (runner-up, Sen. Championships) and J. Cobb (1st, Jun. Championships). In the Intermediate section G. Fry was 2nd High Jump, 3rd Hurdles, and J. Garrod was 3rd in the Broad Jump and 1st in the Hurdles. Teamwork also produced wins. We were 2nd in the Senior House Relay and 1st, Junior House Relay. Again we were well represented at the Inter-Secondary Sports.

L. Morris is Capt. of the 1st Cricket XI and S. Mashlan is V.-Capt. of both teams. F. Espie, Y. Beasley and Eva Vieman are in the First Basketball team and Barbara Eade and Melva Stewart also represent the College at Basketball. Hockey enthusiasts are Raewyn Nodder, Julie Watt and Colleen Murray. Cricket players are Raewyn Nodder, Irene Deverick and Margaret Waide. At Tennis we are represented by Barbara Eade, Lynley Vear and Pat Williams.

Many thanks to Mrs. Lane, who has been so helpful throughout the year, and to other Mistresses who have taken so much interest in Seddon House activities during the year.

WELLESLEY HOUSE NOTES, 1955.

House Mistress: Miss Goad.

Assistant Mistresses: Miss Campbell, Miss Davidson.

House Captain: Rosalyn Wilkins.

Vice-Captain: Christine Porteous.

House Committee: Fifth and Sixth Form representative, Mary Shepherd; Fourth Form representative, June Harvey; Allen.

Third Form rep. Rosalie Allen.

This year we have again won the Swimming Cup for the fourth year in succession. Many Wellesley competitors are to be congratulated for their grand efforts. Special thanks and congratulations should go to—

Championships: H. Kawerue, third in the Senior Championship; J. Edwards, first in the Junior Championship. Others are H. Brewer, S. Pierce, M. Fleet, P. Pogson, C. Millar, J. Bell, G. Nielson, J. Day, M. Howes.

This year, as last year, Wellesley did not shine in Athletics, but we should like to congratulate the winning House, Binns, who put up an excellent display.

Congratulations go to J. Harvey, who shone in all her events to gain credit as our Intermediate Champion. Although we had few entries in the Senior or Junior Championships, thanks and congratulations are to be given to other place winners, R. Allen, Intermediate Discus, Broad Jump, 150 Yards, and Age Races, P. Smith, K. Whitchurch, M. Shepherd. Credit goes to all games teams, Junior Shuttleball, 2nd, Senior Shuttleball, 3rd, Junior In and Out, 3rd, Senior In and Out, 2nd.

House relays: Junior, 2nd; Senior, 3rd.

As always, highlights in the day's sport were three-legged races and sack races, our place winners being F. Johnston and C. Wright, P. Smith and P. Simpson.

Sack Race: K. Whitchurch, M. Shepherd, R. Holbrook.

Wellesley has a good representation in Saturday teams.

Basketball: Fay Johnston, Kenya Whitchurch, Wilma Maiden, D. Stravianos, Rosalie Allen.

Hockey: Mary Shepherd, Jeanette Godwin.

Tennis, Intermediate: Rosalyn Wilkins.

Cricket: Tui Morgan, Diane Richardson, Noeline Whitford.

On behalf of all Wellesley girls I would like to thank Miss Goad, and our Assistant Mistresses for their interest and encouragement during the year. I personally would like to thank the girls of Wellesley House for their co-operation throughout the year and their team spirit. It has indeed been a privilege and pleasure to hold the position of House Captain this year, and I wish all girls the best of luck during next year's sport seasons.

Sir—The social life of our College has much room for improvement. We have a big hall with a perfect dance floor which is used only about five times annually for dances. Socials should be organised at least once a month, allowing a class to play hosts, and entertaining other classes. I think this is a sound idea for teaching the students to mix and make friends.

B. White.

DRAMA NOTES

Many things have happened in our schools lives this year, but to those taking part nothing was more exciting than playing in Robert Louis Stevenson's masterpiece, "Treasure Island". From the moment when Mr. Grant and Mr. Tolerton, masters in charge of the Drama Club, chose us for our roles, piratical swaggers, "Yo ho ho's" and nautical terms filled our young lives for many weeks. Cutlass fighting, boat drill, musketry parades and treasure hunts kept us well occupied. Tom Spiller as Long John Silver, threatened all and sundry with his thirsty cutlass, John Hand (Captain Bones), Roderick Subritzky (Pew), Gray Wade (Watkins) and Robert Ridgley (Israel Hand) died many a gory, gasping or bubbling death, with Derek Renner (Benn Gunn) adding realistic touches as a wild and very woolly castaway. Norman Park (Jim Hawkins), Joan Clarricoats (Mrs. Hawkins), Ernest Bate (Doctor Livesey), Ian Walker (Squire Trelawney), Bruce Sangster (Captain Smollett), made up an excellent team of the "Goodies" against the "Baddies", while Sam Te Hira (Black Dog) and Don Clarke (Merry) added many an evil chuckle and piratical roars, ably supported by all the remaining pirates and hands not mentioned above. Really excellent scenery, lighting, make-up and costumes added considerably to what must be termed a memorable production.

MUSIC IN THE COLLEGE

The musical side of our education is often the one that is most often neglected. Apart from the real enjoyment to be gained from our ability to play, or sing, or listen, there is another very important aspect which fills a gap in our curriculum — namely, the fact that when singing is properly taught, our speaking voice and speech improves. Great emphasis this year was placed upon proper voice production, correct vowel sounds and breath control. The result of these efforts were shown at the concert midway through the second term. There were 60 boys in the group with 30 treble boys. They sang beautifully. The girls' choir was trained by Mrs. Raudon. This group consisted of 40 girls selected from the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Forms. They rendered some excellent items at the School Concert, and, in addition, took part in the Auckland Secondary Schools' Music Festival. They, and Mrs. Raudon, deserve the congratulations of the College for this very considerable effort.

The practice of having the school sing a hymn at morning assemblies has been revived. The results so far are very pleasing. It is a good idea to start off the day on the right note! Mr. Cook expects to form a small orchestra to play the hymn. Perhaps some of the staff will assist in this useful activity.

The band is still persevering. As it takes a long time to train a band, it is essential to pick the right boys in the Third form and to be reasonably sure that they will be three years at school. Mr. Asten, who trains the band, does wonders—he teaches different instruments to 40 boys at once, all in the same room.

The piano pupils are doing well as a result of Mrs. Webster's able instruction. There are still a few vacancies—if you are interested, see Mr. Cook.

LITERARY SECTION

Dong! Do-ong! Do-ong! The huge gong tolls the hour of midnight—the time for the ghost to come. The guards, shivering with horror, stare at the approaching ghost of the dead King. A ghost, a dark and sombre castle, grim guards, thunderstorm and raging sea—the perfect ingredients for a horror film.

Having brought the audience into a state of horror, the film moves on to tragic, but more human scenes.

Hamlet, played by Lawrence Olivier, with a too much made-up face and a little too obvious dyed hair, proceeds to portray Hamlet's weak and indecisive nature. The acting on the part of Hamlet was very good and awe-inspiring, especially when Hamlet lost his temper. Much amusement was given to the audience by the casual sarcasm which Hamlet displayed in his calmer moments.

Jean Simmons, as Ophelia, was at first stiff and statue like, but later on, played the insane Ophelia very well, making herself so pathetic, that even some hardhearted school-girls felt sad.

The ponderous, usurping King reminded me rather of Henry VIII, and appeared rather stupid at times.

Polonius, although portraying a meddlesome busy-body, made one feel sorry for his death.

The ghost of the old King was very effectively played, and perhaps it was not hard for Sir Olivier to play the terrified Hamlet at the sight of him.

On the whole, the picture was very morbid, and left me in a gloomy mood. It was a perfect tragedy, ending with a dead body in each corner of the room.

AUCKLAND IN THE FUTURE

As I lay reading on the couch the book seemed to get further and further away and I could see into the future.

The walkie talkie gadget was clicking in my ears, "Hello! Oh it's you Jane." Jane was coming to my house to tea. There was no need to prepare it. I walked to the cupboard, waved my hands and the electric rays inside my body opened the door, and, having obtained the table-cloth, I proceeded to put it on the table.

There was no need to get any food to put on the table as tablets were the only things necessary. When Jane arrived we had tea and went outside to our aerodrome where my helicopter was. We climbed in and took a cruise around the city.

There were no trams or buses as people came to and from the city by underground railway or electric unit. Only one or two cars could be seen as most people had helicopters. We decided to drop in at the space port as we might happen to see a space-ship take off.

At last we arrived home, jumping on to the escalators as we wanted to go up stairs. Looking out of the window we saw the cable-chair carrying tourists to see the sights of Auckland.

There were no telegraph wires or overhead wires of any sort as they were all underground. Even though it was the middle of winter no smoke was coming from the roofs of the houses as they were all centrally heated.

Going into Queen Street again many of the shops had no overhanging roof and the whole of their fronts were glassed in. The Farmers, Smith and Caughey's, and Milne and Choyce's were all fifteen storeys high. An outside escalator was going up the outside of the Farmer's and if you wanted to go to a certain floor you had to walk off it on to a landing and get into the shop from an outside door.

At last it all seemed to fade away and I climbed out of bed to get on to, what seemed to me, a slow old tram.

MEMORIES THAT LIVE

... and when at last there were about five hundred of us crammed, sitting, squatting, standing in this arena, there appeared from the tunnel a group of determined looking men armed with rolls of names, and they proceeded to the utterly mortifying consternation of all of us five hundred, to call out, very deliberately, and at the top of their voices, our full, complete names. The queues that were formed behind the respective masters were composed of very red faced boys—but after all this verbal undressing, we all started off on equal terms ...

THE ARRIVAL

It was nearly half-past eleven in the morning. All round the Bay people looked at the time and stopped what they were doing prior to setting out on the walk to the wharf. At the one local store the people gathered together and discussed the latest news. Others took their billies down to the milk-stand. The younger people ventured down the road to stand in the shelter of the wharf shed. Two girls in jeans and bright jumpers and a couple of boys stood windblown at the open end of the wharf. A small boy ran up to the Point and proclaimed that the boat was in sight. At once there were great signs of activity. A man shoved a noisily-protesting luggage trolley along its rails. There was a harsh grinding sound of ropes against the piles and at last the boat was moored. The gangplank was lowered and the passengers began to disembark. First off were two youths laden with kitbags and ukeleles. After them came a thin stream of people and then the boat turned away to its next bay. People walked in twos and threes up the dusty road to their expectant friends. The store plied a busy trade for a while and then at last the bay seemed deserted by its inhabitants except for the thin wisp of smoke drifting lazily from the chimneys of the various houses.

AWAY FROM THE MADDING CROWD

It took about three hours to bring us to a complete change of scene and atmosphere from Auckland's busy, noisy streets, filled with easter shoppers and visitors, to the peaceful rolling outback of the Waikato. The journey through by car had been rather tiresome with much traffic on the roads and when we were miles off the main Great South Road (doing about 60 miles an hour) we ran right into five piglets, killing three straight out.

The country air was chilling, particularly so after being in a warm car for so long a time. Sleep came quickly and so did the following morning when we were awakened to learn that escort had been arranged to take us to the local Athletic Sports at a place called Te Mata. This was an athletic meeting with a difference—wood chopping. Before we left I stood on the front steps to see just what kind of country enveloped us. It is an unusual sensation that. Arriving at a place at night time and forming a vague impression of your surroundings and then discovering it to be entirely different in the morning. The noise, or rather the absence of noise, almost became a dull sound that echoed in my ears, and made them ache until I became accustomed to it.

The sports were of a high standard but I was more interested in the wood-chopping events. One thing I noticed in contrast to a city meeting was that all the prizes were in cash, something rarely seen at a city meeting.

That night a dance was held in the local — (when I say local I mean about 15 miles away) dance hall. In the country one spends a vast amount of time travelling from place to place.

Raglan was the next place we visited to have a short tour of the town itself and an inspection of the beach. The beach itself was very lovely but chilled by a strong breeze which always seemed to keep the water fairly cool. Raglan is characteristic of all small country towns nowadays with its fast progress and modernization. Everywhere people were building houses, shops, factories and warehouses.

We spent another day exploring the land around us, climbing trees, picking blackberries which grew in abundance, testing the depth of the lazy meandering creek which was very low indeed, but not as bad as the water situation further south.

Wasps plagued us every meal-time and we were told they eat right through jam covers to eat nearly half a jar of jam.

Our trip home Tuesday morning was made by local bus to Hamilton and from there by service car reaching Auckland at 2.45. The country life had left a firm impression on me, but Sue and I left an impression on one member of the country community by "apple-pieing" his bed to a degree that he had previously thought impossible.

THE STRANGER

The stranger's name was Granger,
Who lived across the sea,
This is the stranger who is always in danger;

With his dog with a buckled knee.
On this dark, cold night,
A door creaked open.
In walks the stranger,
Whose name is Granger;
A knife between his teeth,
And Lucky at his feet.

What is he after?
This is what caused laughter,
A piece of bread for his bed,
That is what he was after.

ORIGIN OF RUGBY FOOTBALL

Rugby had its birth at "Rugby School" in 1823. Two school teams were playing football at the time when 16 year old William Webb Ellis startled everyone by picking up the ball and running with it toward his opponents' goal. This was new in football and the rules of the game at Rugby School underwent a change.

In the early days of the game there was no overall set of rules and rugby was played in different fashion in various districts and schools. The game was strictly for tough lads, for kicking and tackling played a big part. Twenty a side was the usual line up. The teams consisted of 13 forwards, 3 half-backs, 1 three quarter, and 3 full-backs. The game consisted largely of a fierce battle between the forwards. The recognized way of stopping a man was to rush at him and the two would meet chest to chest like charging bulls.

"GOOD FISHING"

With the formation of the "Rugby Union" in 1873, a clear code of rules came into being. In 1877 international teams were reduced to fifteen a side. In 1885, Wales adopted the revolutionary formation of four three-quarters. Other countries did so but only in 1893 did they do it.

The following countries compete in international championships.

England (Rose), Scotland (Thistle), Wales (Feathers), Ireland (Clover), Australia (Wallaby), France (Rooster), New Zealand (Fern), South Africa (Springbok).

NOISES IN OUR SCHOOL

Whorrrrr! goes the sawdust sucker in the distance. The murmur of voices, the scrape of chairs on the bare boards of the floor, and the rustle of the books as the pages are flicked over. Then, again, comes the buzzing of the electric saw. Suddenly, with a whine, the sawdust sucker stops, and everything seems strangely silent. Frequently the even tenor of life's way is disturbed, as a boy's voice breaks the silence, and asked for his book back, it having been taken by the boy in front of him. The regular sawing of wood is heard as a hand saw cuts its way slowly into the timber. The general murmur of voices grows but is quickly silenced by the voice of the teacher who is walking around the room. The blowing of a nose, a rasping cough, and the tick!, tick!, tick!, of a boys' watch. Our attention is diverted for a moment, then, once again we settle down to work.

Such is the "ever" tenor of life's way at S.M.T.C.

TRAINING FOR SPORT

Its Importance in the Development of Character

Character is developed by self-effort, which is the essence of real training. To do physical exercises when it would be much more agreeable to rest, to do a hard hour's work on the road in driving rain, to snatch half an hour between work hours, to practise with a medicine bag and fight a sack, requires self-effort and enterprise, and is an exercise for the character. Everytime a muscle is exercised it is strengthened, likewise every time the character is exercised it is strengthened. Self-effort is will power, and will power is the parent of such qualities as pluck and determination. These are created during training.

Remember that all forms of training help one another. Therefore, whatever you are training for, play other games as well, if only for the sake of variety. Monotony has a stagnating effect on the mind, and takes all the joy out of training.

The real value of sport is not the actual game played in the limelight of applause, but the actual hours of dogged determination and self-discipline spent alone, imposed and supervised by an exacting conscience. The applause soon dies away, the prize is left behind, but the character you build up is yours for ever.

A True Sportsman

1. Plays the game for the game's sake.
2. Is modest in victory and generous in defeat.
3. Is unselfish and ever ready to help others to become proficient.
4. As a spectator conducts himself as a gentleman.

TRAMPING

Dust
 Dust everywhere — in the eyes, ears,
 nose,
 It swirls up as the cars pass
 Into a cloud of thick, grey, dust.
 I am hungry, footsore, tired,
 But still I am fired
 With the desire to be on the road,
 Walking in the thick, friendly dust.
 The sun beats down,
 I sweat and declare,
 "Ne'er again will I come Into the hot, dusty sunshine!"
 But when a day is fine
 And the flies swarm around me —
 There is nowhere I would rather be Than on the road, in thick friendly dust.

A VISIT TO THE WHARF

The sparkling water, the squawking seabirds, and the massive ships lying idle in their berths impressed me very much as I strolled along the wharf sampling the early morning ozone. There was a hum of activity as huge cranes swung to and fro loading and unloading the cargo between ship and wharf. Jetneys and fork-hoists towing various goods ran smoothly along under the experienced and guiding hands of their drivers. Men busied themselves unhooking the nets conveying cargo from the ships and placing them on to small trucks which took them into stores.

All the work of this busy port was in full swing as I left, and the shrill blast of the lunchtime whistle, the low hoot of a ferry boat, and the squawking of a seagull reminded me of one of the more pleasant times I had had during the school vacation.

C.3.D.'s. PROJECT

This year in the first term we decided to make a project to send to Nunhead Secondary School in London.

Before we started on the project, we wrote letters to Nunhead School asking them if they would be our pen-friends. In these letters, we told them about ourselves, where we live and what we do. We also told them about the project we were making.

While we waited for answers we started on the project. It was all about our school, Auckland, the history and geography of New Zealand, and also about the interesting places we could visit. We were all soon very busy looking up books and making notes on the subject given, to write about. We also collected pictures, and drew pictures to go with the notes. When we had finished writing about our school, a girl from our class drew the school badge. At the end of the term we had finished the project, and our form teacher put it in order.

Just after we had sent the project, we received letters from the girls of Nunhead Secondary School. In these letters we learnt many different things. They told us about their school. We learnt that Nunhead is not a very big school for about 400 boys and girls attending there. The children at Nunhead School start at eleven years of age, in form 1, and they finish school when they are fifteen in form 4. Their school starts at half past nine in the morning and finishes at four-thirty in the afternoon. They have an hour and a half for lunch when they may buy, a school dinner which is a two course meal costing about ninepence. An hour and a half also gives the girls and boys going home for lunch plenty of time.

Their subjects are English, Mathematics, Social Studies, Science, Physical Education, Cooking, Sewing, Music,

Typing and Art. They do not have Shorthand, Commercial Practice or Book-Keeping, but they do have periods of Religious Instruction. They do not call their houses by names, but by their colours, blue, green, yellow or red. Their school colour is green.

In the winter the girls wear a green tunic, and in the summer a green checked frock. The boys wear long grey trousers, grey shirts and a green tie.

The first term, is from September to about the 19th of December. Then they have a fortnight's holiday. The second term is from January, to Easter and then they have another fortnight's holiday. The third term is from May to July. They then have the long summer holidays.

In the letters we were told about the places they have visited, such as Buckingham Palace, Westminster, Big Ben and the Tower of London. All these places they see many times but we have seen them only in films or pictures.

Many of us have answered the letters, and have found that the girls have become good pen-friends. We are now waiting for the project from Nunhead Secondary School for the headmaster there said they are going to send us one about their country.

NO BAGS

Each new year our parents toe the line complacently to the tune of £5 or £6 for new text books. Each year a batch is discarded. A few are resold and the rest are put on a back bookshelf to help clutter the place up, in case they may come in handy.

To eliminate this waste, all pupils at the end of this school year should donate their books to the classes taking their place, with books remaining the property of the class. In future years £1 from each pupil would keep replacements up to date and save parents pounds.

Each pupil would be responsible for the care and reasonable maintenance of the book. If the books were left in racks by the door they would be accessible to the pupils as they entered and left the classroom. This method would also apply to pencils, rulers and rubbers, and the likelihood of them being stolen would be lessened by the fact that they would be practically free and always available.

The leaving of heavier text books in the class rooms would almost eliminate the necessity for carrying heavy bags on bicycles, buses and often on a long journey by foot after leaving the bus.

Parents, teachers and pupils would all welcome this approach to what is becoming a nightmare of inconvenience and expense.

CHRISTMAS EVE

People hurrying up the street,
 Pushing and standing on others feet,
 In the shops, the children cry
 With delight for Santa's nigh;
 Gay decorations hang about,
 And Santa who is short and stout,
 Sits on a platform in a chair,
 And talks to children dark and fair,
 Grown-ups who have more to do,
 Buy the last of presents new.
 All these people in the town,
 Soon will be homeward bound,
 Wrap the presents they have bought,
 In pretty paper, gay and bright,
 In stockings the presents will they leave.

For tonight is Merry Christmas Eve.

BEHIND THE SCENES

The production of a play is a long and hard process. The actual production can be roughly divided into three stages: the picking of the characters, the rehearsals, and, finally, the presentation of these three. The last is the easiest and yet the most exciting. I propose to deal with all three and to try to give the reader an idea of what really goes into the production of a play.

The first thing that is done, after the play has been chosen, is to pick the players. The producer may, before the auditions, have some idea as to who will fit into what part. The actual auditions consist of picking several players who look as though they would do as the character, and then, by getting them to read some of their parts, gradually whittle the possibles down to one who is most suitable. As can be realised, this is a long and rather tedious method of selecting the characters, and yet it is the only way. Fortunately, it does not apply to all the characters. Generally the leading players take the longest time to pick, though sometimes a small part player who has a short but difficult piece, will be just as hard to choose. Not only has the player to resemble the character he is portraying, but he must have the right voice and correct movements. For instance, it would be ridiculous for a player with a shrill voice and quick, lithe movements, to try and portray an old drunken pirate. Thus does the producer pick his players. This, however, is not the hardest part in producing a play.

When all the characters have been decided on, then starts the hard and most tedious part of the whole play: the learning of lines. This means just sitting down for hours on end and learning the lines until they are word perfect. Then, and only then, can the rehearsals really start. Each scene is gone through as many as six times before the producer can move to the next one. Every speech must be right, every action; and all the little difficulties that arise must be ironed out. This must be done for every scene, and it is hard work. The player must remember just as well every little action in the first scene as well as those in the last. He must know the play off by heart.

When every scene is finished, to the producer's satisfaction, the "dress rehearsal" is held. In the other scenes, the players wear ordinary clothes, but during the dress rehearsal, they wear the clothes they will be wearing during the play. All the scenery is ready and the play is put over almost as it will be on the night. Many actions that have been arranged will have to be changed and even a few speeches may be altered. The second rehearsal naturally goes better than the first and may even run right through without an interruption. Whether it does or not, however, everything must be fixed before the play is presented. Little wonder that all this is considered the hardest part of the actual production.

When the rehearsals are over, the play is presented. The product of months of hard work, lost tempers, frayed nerves and even a few tears, it is at last presented to, it is hoped, an admiring audience. Backstage on the night, everything is seeming chaos. The producer rushes here and there, stage hands arrange the scenery, and the players are made up. Then the curtain goes up and the play starts.

DO IT YOURSELF

So you want to build some bookshelves do you. It's really quite simple. All you do is send away for the Kitset. Everything is so easy: the pieces are all lettered and a pamphlet shows how to go about it, in five or six stages. They say even a child can assemble the job. Most men start looking for that child.

This Kitset can be purchased at a give-away price, plus a few minor expenses that do not appear in the instructions. These include the cost of the tools you don't possess—the money for the window that was broken turning a lengthy piece of wood—not forgetting a day's work that was lost having treatment for those mangled fingers, which occurred when the saw slipped, plus the doctor's fee. This accounts for only a few of the items. Yes! the bookshelves can be made at an unbeatable price.

One usually studies the plans for half-an-hour or so, then one studies the parts to assemble for half-an-hour also. Another thirty minutes are taken scrutinising the plans again, and a longer period looking at the parts for the second time. A doubt may creep into your mind. "Was this kitset meant or building bookshelves?"

You select a likely looking piece, then study the instructions. "Now, after hammering edge G, mitre A and D with tongue joint. Use casein glue." You may ask yourself, "Is this a joke?" Perhaps it might be better to start on the shelves.

Finally in despair, the neighbour is called in. In an hour or so the combined efforts produced the bookshelves. When the time comes to take the finished product from the basement, one finds a slight error—it will not go through the door; nor through the window, but with some juggling and scratching of polish, the bookshelves just scrape through, with the door off its hinges.

Usually the last straw is when the friends and relatives file past your handicraft. Mother explains that you had to use 1/4" putty to fill in gaps because you did not screw it together properly and that the bookshelves rock, because the sides are not pairs. Those who have had these experiences, hardly ever go back for a second helping.

CHINESE SCHOOL DAYS

China is a very big country with a vast population. All the people there speak different dialects, but the Chinese writing is the same all over China. Each small town has its own dialect. In the village of Shue where I lived, the dialect spoken is called Cantonese which is one of the two main dialects used in China. Mandarin is the other and is spoken in Peking, Shanghai and North West China. If a person speaks these two dialects, he can be understood in any part of China.

There are nine thousand characters in the Chinese language of which I knew about five hundred when I left China.

The hours of my Chinese school were different from those in N.Z. schools. I started school at 8 a.m. and had lessons until 12 noon. Then followed lunch until 1 p.m. Lessons began again at 1 p.m. and finished at 4 p.m. The lesson periods were 1 hour in length and there was a break of 5 minutes between each period. During the week, from Std. 3 upwards, we had about two periods of learning English. The rest of the day we were taught Chinese.

Our school uniform in winter was similar to that of a girl guide. We wore black pleated skirts and a yellow long sleeved blouse with a pocket on the left side, above which our school's name was written. We wore a blue three-cornered scarf, tied under our collar and fastened in front with a scarf ring, bearing our school's name. Our hat was a yellow glengarry with a badge on the front. On the shoulder of our blouse we wore our school colours, green, red, and yellow woolen ribbons. Also on each shoulder was an epaulette. Beneath one we would place our glengarry when not wearing it. On the other a number was attached. Each pupil had a different number. If any pupil misbehaved in public, while wearing her school uniform and her name was not known by any onlooker, the number on her shoulder would be reported to the head teacher. Across our head we wore a pleated yellow lanyard to which a whistle was attached. On our belts we hung a small coil of rope and a sheath knife. We wore black shoes with white socks.

All pupils in all schools in Canton or in the villages wore the same kind of uniform, only the shoulder ribbons and badges being different. If we met a fellow pupil or a pupil from an other school, both pupils, if wearing hats had to salute each other with a salute of three fingers, touching the right of our hat. If we were not wearing hats we had to bow. The same procedure applied, if we met a teacher.

In the summer we did not wear the school uniform as it was usually too hot. We wore Chinese costume consisting of long cotton trousers, some plain, some floral and brightly coloured, and a jacket which buttoned on the right up to the underarm, and and then across to the front. Most of these jackets had a tiny stand up collar. These jackets were usually the same colour as the trousers. Some were short, finished just below the waist, while others were longer finishing at about the calf of the leg. Our school badge was worn on our jacket. We usually wore English shoes and short socks with our tunic. Few pupils Chinese scuffs as they were not strong enough for school wear.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Sir—I think that, instead of having to spend part of two days a week on going up to the Domain for sports, we should have the usual time we have on Thursday afternoon added on to our Tuesday time. This would give us a longer time for practising, as we would not have to spend so much time going to the Domain. It would also save us the trouble of bringing our football gear two days a week.

P. Champion, E.4A.

Dear Sir,

I am sure all the girls will agree with me when I say that I do not think it is fair for only boys to go over to Albert Park during the lunch hour.

Although there are more boys than girls, I think the boys' playground is larger than the girls', and during the summer they get some shade from their shelter sheds, while the girls have to sit in their playground which has no shade at all. Also I think that the girls would appreciate this privilege more than the boys, who sometimes play very roughly and spoil the beautiful gardens that grow in Albert Park.

To be quite fair, I think the boys and girls should have week about of going over to Albert Park for lunch.

OUT OF THIS WORLD

It was the year 1999 when Rocky Moon, the famous scientist, was going to attempt to travel across space for the first time in his space ship, the 'Dark Blue Streak.' The engines in this craft operated on the principle of compression ignition triple reciprocating atomic assisted jetex with an electric drive.

It was 0800 hours or 'Aspro time' when they entered the space ship. They strapped themselves down in their Para foam rubber self-adjusting seat. When all was ready, Rocky said, "Stand by! prepare to blast off ten seconds from . . . now!" then he started counting ". . . . 5 4 3 2 1 zero!"

Nothing happened—they had forgotten to fill up the tanks with Mountain Peroxide Hydrogen Atomic Nebular Redex super fuel, known as Kerosene to the old fashioned world. When they had filled it up and had recharged the battery, they gave the ship another check over. They had checked it so many times that the ground staff were playing the old game of draughts on it.

After they had climbed in it again and strapped themselves down they prepared to blast off, the seconds ticked by slowly, so slowly in fact because the clock had stopped.

While it was being wound up, Rocky said "I'm hungry."

Harry replied, "I'm Augustus, Alawishus Mcgerginshawe. Pleased to know you, Hungry."

There was a forced laugh by Rocky, forced because he was eating a doughnut, a meat pie, a lolly pop, a topsy, a coke and was smoking a space fleet super king size cork tip cigarette.

After the clock had been wound up and everything rechecked, to the annoyance of the ground staff, they prepared to take off again . . . 3 2 1 zero!! there was a gentle rumbling and a terrific explosion as the ship shot away into space (they hoped). As everything was automatic and the controls had been set they just waited until they landed.

Hours later they landed, and how! There was a terrific crash, two loud bangs, thirteen thuds, a squeak and a moo. Scrambling out they cried, "hurrah! we're the first men on the moon."

"Are you barmy, guv?" an old farm hand grumbled, "You've gone an' busted two orve me buildin's, norcked over toiteen orve me cows and gorn an' a landed orn poor ol' Daisy an' you reckon your on the moon. Daft I call it."

Poor old Rocky and Harry, after the shock they went to a place a few sections out of town to puzzle over what went wrong.

THE NIGHT OF THE FLOOD

It was a peaceful river with plenty of fish, quiet waters, low grassy banks and beautiful lilies growing in the tranquil waters. The people of this old English town worshipped this river as if it was a god as it provided them with abundant supplies of fish. But little did the citizens know in their hearts and minds that this little river, in the small valley of their homes, was to cause the death and destruction of many people and homes.

I was a reporter for, "National Geographic," and my assignment was to find out all about the lives and homes of these simple people. I was spending the winter there as it is the most beautiful time of the year. There had been an avalanche about three miles upstream and chunks of snow had been continually floating downstream.

Then, at about nine o'clock on Sunday night, 16th February, many of the townsfolk who were still awake, heard a low rumbling in the far distance. They were at once startled and woke the other members of their households. I happened to be half-way up the hill taking photos of the town at night when I saw what looked like an avalanche coming down the river at a terrific speed.

Then, before any people could escape, the river had risen and was over its bank and spreading through the town. People were opening doors to rush out only to fall into the dark, dirty, swift-running water, and be swept away, a house collapsed and screams issued from inside.

Dark shapes of people floated in the water, being rolled over and over in the current. I was now down at the edge of the water, helping survivors. Now many people's homes were being wrecked and the air was filled with crashing and yelling of children.

After some of the water had subsided, and left a line of silt and rubble, the people who had survived waded back to their homes which were scenes of destruction. Even though it was not my home-town I felt sorrowful as I waded back across the mud.

TROUT FISHING ON THE WAIKATO AT EASTER

On Good Friday, last Easter, I arose from my comfortable bed at four-thirty a.m., snatched a hurried breakfast and I was on my way. I was going to Taupo. I travelled by car with Mr. Brown, the owner, his son and some friends. The distance was two hundred miles. We stopped at Hamilton for morning tea. When we arrived at Rotorua we again stopped. We finally arrived at the bach at twelve-thirty, just in time for lunch.

Bobby, Mr. Brown's son, said to me, 'Come on Roger, let's go and get the dinghy.' We walked about one hundred yards downstream to where the boat was neatly hidden in some ti-tree scrub. It was then that I made my first attempt at catching trout. That day I caught one small anaemic looking tidler which I threw back in disgust.

Our method of fishing was by trolling. The dinghy was fitted with an outboard motor. One person controlled the boat while two or sometimes three others fished. The fishers had a rod each, and let the lines trail behind the boat. Bait was not used, but a shiny metal spoonshaped spinner, so called because the force of the boat dragging it through the water caused it to spin furiously. The spinner had a hook on the end of it. To prevent the line from twisting when the spinner turned, a small line swivel was also attached.

When any of the fishermen had a strike, the motor was stopped, and the boat drifted while the catch was being landed, that is if the trout was hooked. The fish is wound right up to the boat, with the rod vertical, and lifted out of the water, with a net. If the fish is allowed to jump while being wound in, he will probably throw the hook, and be lost. Next the motor is restarted and trouting is continued.

My total catch for the weekend was eleven trout, four of which were thrown back, being less than eleven inches long. I also caught the largest trout—one weighing four pounds.

Any fish which were not eaten, Mr. Brown gutted and salted, and smoked overnight, using ti-tree for the fire.

"TRAMPS"

THE MODERN OUTLOOK ON THE GAME OF RUGBY

The 1905 All Blacks! The 1924 Invincibles. What stirring memories these two names recall, and even the most uninterested New Zealander must feel a tingle of pride run through him as the feats of these two teams are unfolded. Old "die-hard" armchair critics call again and again for the sight of two packs of forwards charging together and fighting for the loose head like tigers battling for their very existence. Where, they say, are the fast and steamrolling back movements which swept all before them. Let us look into these criticisms and see if they have any foundation; and if they have, the reason for the change.

First of all, I think it will be conceded that rugby today is not as fast as it was thirty years ago. Are there any main reasons for this? The answer is "yes". Let us consider the games which we are most capable of judging, the international. International sport has a much greater importance now than if it did even twenty years ago and consequently the prestige of a country is at stake every time a representative team takes the field.

This one fact more than anything else has caused the defensive attitude of trying to stop the other side from scoring points rather than to try and score points yourself. The All Blacks tour of South Africa in 1949 supports this fact. The All Blacks did not win one international, and yet they had their line crossed only eight times on a tour which included twenty-two matches.

Another factor which has governed the change to tactical kicking instead of the old game of passing is the introduction of the "No. 8" forward. This roving marauder and his destructive effect on orthodox back movements has caused grave concern among modern Rugby circles and many a young inside-back has had his confidence completely shattered by his continuous attention.

The critic, in his quest for brighter back play, who tries to compare the inside backs of the earlier All Black teams with those of today, has his answer here. Inside backs of former teams did not have to contend with a fifteen stone giant just waiting to receive the ball and knock the "day-lights" out of him.

From these observations, we can see that the modern game can never return to the old carefree style of days gone by. For this to be done, tension would have to be removed from internationals, and this alone is impossible. Far from becoming less important, international sport is becoming more important in the daily life of the world. Whether or not this is a good tendency I am not prepared to say, but I do know that when the South Africans tour New Zealand in 1956, there will be just as much enthusiasm at Eden Park or the 4th test as there ever was in 1905 when the All Blacks went to England.

TERM DIARY

First Term:

This began on 1st February for the Third Formers and on the 2nd Feb. for the Senior School.

Between the 4th and the 8th, the boys were busy drilling in the Domain while the powers that be hatched timetables for them back at school. Our main recollection of this period is of heat exhaustion.

On 12th February the Prefects were announced.

The swimming sports were held on the 21st February, the boys at the Olympic Pool, and the girls at Shelly beach baths.

On 4th March, the Intersecondary Swimming Sports were held. The boys at the Olympic Pool and the girls at the Shelly Beach Baths.

The finals of the boys' Athletic Sports were held at the Domain on 10th March, with Mr. MacDonald in charge, while the girls had theirs at Sarawai Park a week later.

On 22nd March, there was a highly successful Parents-Teachers' Association meeting at which Miss Davies and Miss Downs gave interesting accounts of their overseas visits.

At the Boys' Inter-Secondary Athletic Sports, held at Eden Park in March, we did very well, winning both the Intermediate B and Junior B divisions.

The Annual Parents-Teachers' Association meeting took place on 5th April. Miss Miles and Mr. Ohlson gave interesting and informative addresses on careers and vocational guidance.

The girls' Inter-Secondary Athletic Sports were held on 16th April, and on the same day, three of our crews competed in Head of the Harbour Rowing races.

On 22nd April, the Anzac Day Service was held in the Town Hall, with the Prefects' Concert the same evening.

The 23rd May saw the term end and both staff and pupils went off to enjoy a well-earned break.

Second Term:

We were all back hail and hearty and full of zeal on 23rd May. No time was lost in getting under way for now the half-year examinations were in sight.

On 29th May, the Empire Youth Service was held in the Town Hall.

Several rugby teams had matches at Pukekohe on 7th June, the results of which are recorded elsewhere. On the 14th, basketball and hockey matches were held, also at Pukekohe.

A successful College Dance took place on 17th June. The beneficial results of the dancing lessons, so skillfully conducted by Mr. Page, were in evidence.

The 6th July saw the half yearly examinations begin and for some days an unusual quiet and air of gravity descended on the college.

The School Concert, held on 15th and 16th July, was a credit to Mr. Cook and Miss Raudon being immensely enjoyed by everybody.

Parents and teachers had the opportunity on 27th July to discuss mutual 'problems,' at a meeting at which interesting addresses were given.

On 12th and 13th, August, the College Drama Club performed "Treasure Island." The production was a great achievement, and especially on the second night, was a magnificent success. Mr. Grant has every reason to be delighted with the results of all his hard enthusiastic work.

Third Term:

The 5th September saw us all back for the third and final term with School Certificate and U.E. candidates girding their loins for last and vital lap.

On Wednesday, 5th October, the Engineering Department held a function at which the various activities of the College were displayed to parents.

And so the diary closes with the Christmas holidays in our sights, and the senior pupils gearing their efforts to the requirement of the School Certificate and University Entrance examinations, while the rest of us hope to do well in the more modest internal ones.
